

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

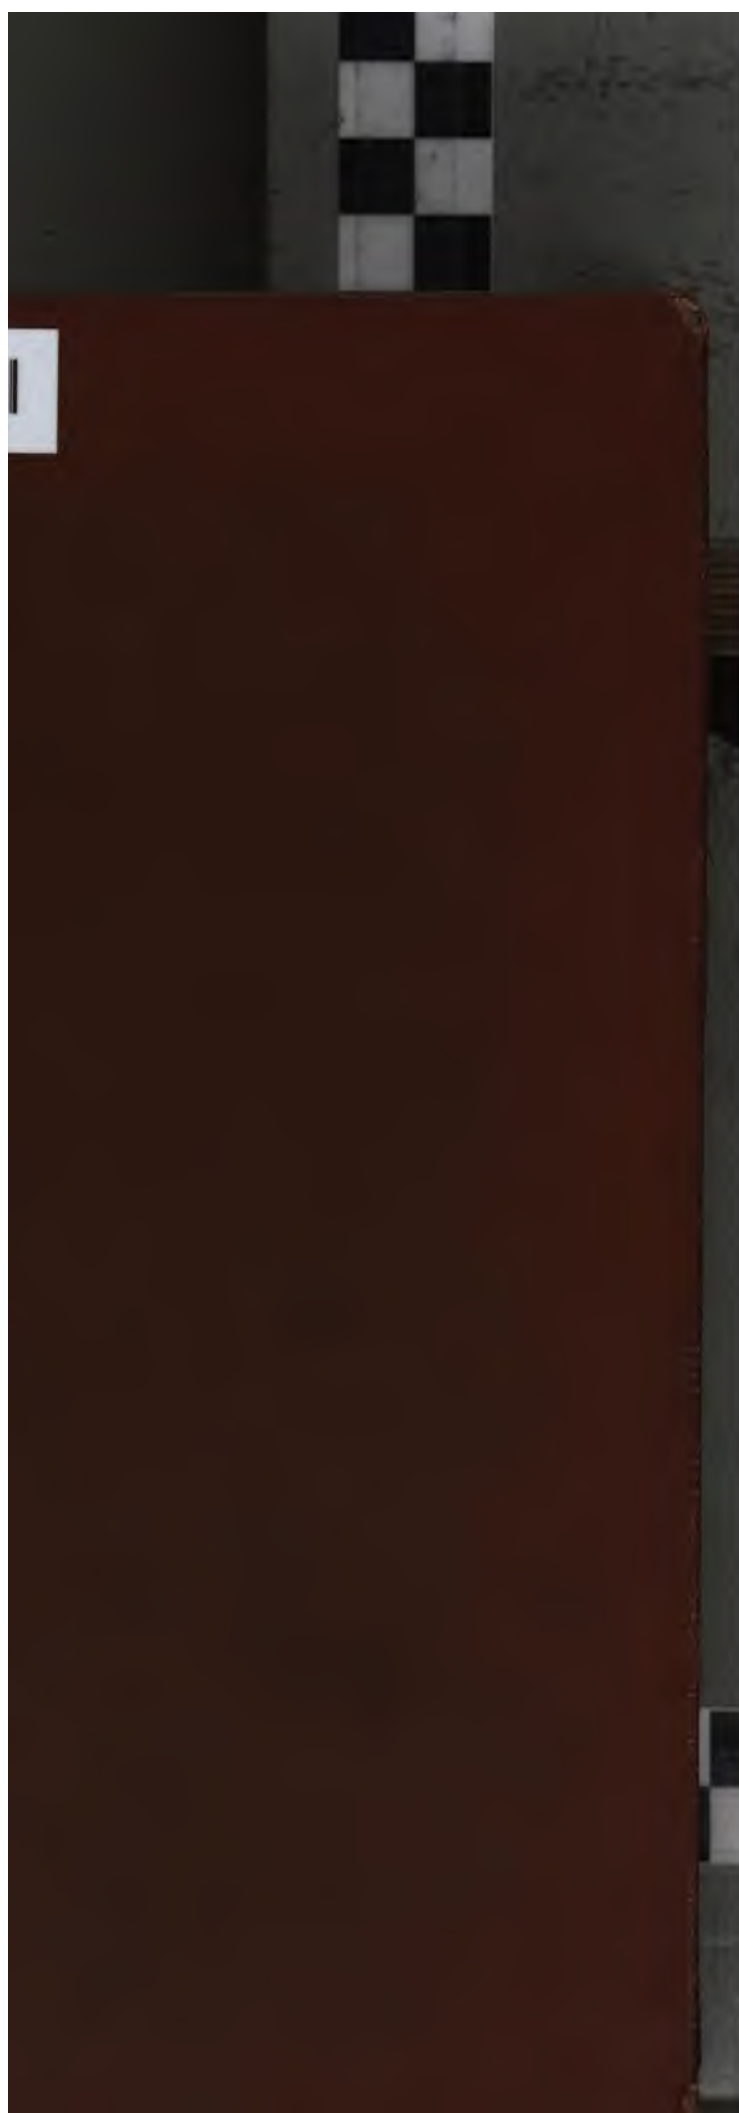

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the clergy entitled to seats, when one hundred and ninety-two answered to their names and took their seats.

The Secretary then called the names of the Lay Delegates

On motion of the Secretary, the certificate of the appointment of Lay Delegates from St. Michael's Church, New York, and the certificate of the appointment of Lay Delegates from the Church of the Epiphany, New York, which were technically defective for causes not provided for by the canon, were accepted.

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

The Rev. Robert B. Kimber presented the following report:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY, 1902.

Although more than threescore years and ten have passed since the Society first began its work of ministering to the poor and unfortunate of the city, it may be said to be just entering upon the era of its greatest usefulness. The city is undergoing a great change, and along with its material advancement, men's consciences are being stirred to the better care of those who because of age, suffering or crime are the wards of the metropolis. This makes our existing work easier, and is constantly opening to us new opportunities of enlargement.

It is impossible at this time to speak of the work in any detail. The annual report, soon to be issued, will inform those who would seek further what has been done.

On the first of May last the Rev. Dr. Nelson retired from the office of Superintendent after a faithful service of more than eight years, and on the same day the present incumbent undertook the direction of the work.

The Treasurer's books show that the sources of the Society's income have been as follows:

Income Applicable to General Expenses	$41,106 47
Legacies	16,523 96
Fresh Air Fund	4,506 50
Festival Fund.	3,267 50
Special Objects.	3,281 94
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc.	734 90
Total.	$69,481 27

This is an increase of about one thousand dollars over the previous year; but if the work that lies before us waiting to be done is to be accomplished with the thoroughness that it merits, the amount of our annual income must be greatly increased. Less than one quarter of the Parishes of the City are now contributors. The Clergy are asked to bring this work before their people and to receive their offerings for it on an appointed day. The Superintendent will be glad to make addresses on such occasions and is at the service of his brethren.

The Missionary staff during the past twelvemonth has numbered thirty Clergymen, of whom twelve have rendered occasional service, one Deaconess and four Lay Readers.

The following figures will give an idea of the extent of the work:

Number of Places where Services are Held	34
Number of Services	3,900
Celebrations of the Holy Communion, Public	566
" " " " " Private.....	583
Baptisms, Adults.....	97
" Children.....	317

Marriages.....	70
Funerals.....	227
Visits	106,261
Books Distributed in Public Institutions.....	52,320
Periodicals Distributed in Public Institutions.....	130,430

The Missionaries have rendered most efficient service in the Public Institutions, where, with the exception of the City Prison, we are by the courtesy of the City the only Protestant Body at work.

Ten hospitals and several homes for convalescents are our field among the suffering. Services are held in nine prisons for the benefit of the inmates, who are also regularly visited in their cells. Six other institutions have a weekly service.

In the new Tombs Prison a Chapel has been set apart for our use. The City has furnished the pews, and friends of the Society have enabled us to properly equip the chancel, and to provide a pipe organ of suitable size.

At the House of Refuge on Randall's Island a most effective work is being done. The inmates are all minors, and while fifty per cent. are criminal cases, the others have been committed for every cause, as the Missionary describes it, from "stepmother" to staying out nights. Not only are these young people—boys and girls—ministered to carefully by Service, Sunday-school and personal visiting, but they are kept track of for two years after their discharge. In many cases employment is found for them, they are attached to parishes and, as far as possible, kept from temptation. Seventy-six of them were presented for Confirmation in the Institution Chapel last spring.

Among our own chapels, the Chapel of the Messiah in East 95th Street stands first in importance. Though it has not attracted much attention in Church circles, it is rapidly surpassing in the extent of its work several of the larger chapels of the upper and lower East side with their staffs of clergy and workers. The record of a year is in round numbers one of over 400 services, 130 Celebrations of the Holy Communion in public and in private, 140 baptisms and 70 confirmations, while the Sunday-school is attended by more than 800 children. This work has been carried on by one man—unassisted—who has found time to make 2,600 pastoral visits besides. A curate is a necessity, a parish house indispensable—yet both are in the future unless some one is moved to give abundantly of that with which God has blessed him.

After many years of patient waiting the congregation of the Chapel of San Salvatore worshipped in their new building on the first Sunday of June. The new chapel is on Broome Street with a parish house on a connecting lot fronting on Elizabeth Street. The services are in Italian and the work is prospering under the care of the Rev. Dr. Nelson. Such progress has been made in recent years that the friends of this mission look forward with increased hopefulness to the day when it will become one of the dependent parishes of the Diocese.

Saint Barnabas' House, with its nursery and kindergarten in connection with the Providence House, under the care of Deaconess Mather, is too well known to need any description. A full record of its service will appear in the Annual Report.

During the summer 722 children and mothers have been sent from crowded districts to the country for a two weeks' stay. Two hundred and fifty of these have been cared for at the Rethmore Home, Ter N. J., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who, for ten successive years have provided the house and met all the expenses of its maintenance. At the North Mountain Home in the Catskills, 200 more were provided for. The others have been sent to places nearer by.

Two new fields have been occupied during the year. For a long time we have been anxious to minister to the patients in the smallpox and contagious wards of Riverside Hospital, North Brother Island. It has been difficult to find a man, immune, who was not a parish priest. But by the appointment of the Rev. George L. Nicholas, Doctor of Medicine, as one of the medical staff of this institution, a satisfactory solution was found. Henceforth, those who are unfortunate enough to have to be taken to the dreaded place will be sure of the ministrations of one who is a physician both soul and body.

The large number of men in this City who may be said to have no Sunday has attracted our attention, and at least one class of these is being systematically cared for. Each Sunday one of the clerical staff rides the elevated roads, leaving the day's service leaflet with a few words of sympathy with the men in charge of the stations and trains. The conductors and motormen who gather at the trolley car barns awaiting their return to work are not forgotten, but are visited some time during the day.

It seems to the Superintendent that the field of city mission offers the best instruction in pastoral theology that is to be had. As graduates of medical schools compete with one another to secure the coveted positions as internes in the large hospitals, to put into practice under competent guidance what they have learned in theory; why should not young graduates of seminary or deaconess school seek a place on the mission staff to serve and learn under those who are trained in the field before he enters upon parochial life as rector or assistant?

Some have said that New York was rapidly becoming a foreign city and an American quarter. The American is the person to whom we are the often privileged to minister. In some of our chapels Jew and Gentile sit shoulder to shoulder intently listening to the story of Christ. Everywhere Europe is before us in the persons of her suband the city missionary must be a linguist if he would do his best work.

Help us then, brethren, by your sympathy, your offerings and your prayers to bring about in small degree in this land the conditions of the first Whitsunday, when in Jerusalem men from every nation under Heaven heard in their own tongues the wonderful works of God.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Superintendent.

The Rev. Charles J. Holt offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the city and Diocese to give to that work their unremitting and generous support.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., the Rev. Romaine S. Mansfield, the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, and the Rev. Robert Van Kleeck Harris.

The Rev. Walter A. A. Gardner presented the following report:

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

We, the Board of Managers, in making our annual report, feel justified in calling the attention of our friends to certain features of our work that this year have been attended with especially gratifying results.

The detailed statements of our chaplains giving the number of services held and of the seamen in attendance at them, as well as of the men using our reading-rooms, show but partially with what zeal and ardor our missionaries are laboring. Still no figures can tell the story of very much that they accomplish. We desire now to present for special consideration the following facts:

The Seamen's Branch of the Legal Aid Society, with which we have continued in active co-operation in rendering efficient aid to seamen, has been increasingly successful. More than 300 applications monthly have been acted on; with the aggregate result of $20,938 recovered for arrears of wages and personal property, in addition to the many fines and penalties imposed by the courts upon offenders against laws for the protection of seamen.

- The Society's special officer has accomplished better results each month by reason of his experience with the needs of seamen, his growing knowledge of the plots and schemes which beset them in this port, and by his improved standing and influence with the various courts and consulates.

He reports having received during the year from seamen more than $15,000 for safekeeping or for transmission to dependent relatives at home. This new form of relief means far more to sailors in a strange port than meets the eye. Formerly their wages were spent or lost in reckless dissipation. They now deposit their wages on pay day and draw a few dollars only each week for necessary expenses, and are not easily victimized, while their homes and families are more carefully safeguarded. The infamous "runners" who formerly supplied them with liquors of the worst sort on board vessels in the harbor, are now kept in check, and "blood-money" exactions have been reduced to a few sporadic cases. The use by our officer of tugs in visiting ships before docking has been very serviceable, and while costly, your Board considers that the excellent results achieved fully justify the expense. The U. S. authorities have recently recognized the value of our work and have directed that a Federal officer should accompany our agent to vessels entering the port to enforce observance of Federal laws outside of the local jurisdiction.

We have not been able to obtain the free use of the needed steam launch from the Government officials, but we hope soon to find some friend of our work for seamen who will extend its usefulness by donating an adequate boat, for use by our special officer and by our chaplains.

We desire to recognize the excellent work of the Seamen's Branch of the Legal Aid Society, not only in preventing and punishing offences against seamen, but also in its friendly mediation in adjusting contested claims between ships and men.

The Attorney of the Branch reports that out of the 4,000 claims acted on by him during the year more than nine-tenths of the civil suits were settled by arbitration, plaintiffs and defendants alike having confidence in his just and disinterested attitude towards all parties in interest.

The British Consulate General is entitled to our commendation and thanks for its ready co-operation with and recognition of our work.

Although we have not been able to establish the desired "free shipping bureau," we are able to report much progress in shipping seamen from our "Sailors' Home" and mission stations without the costly and corrupt interposition of "crimps."

We should be glad if funds were available to enlarge our work during the coming year by opening a new reading room in a locality where hundreds of seamen daily congregate, and where reading matter and a resting place would greatly divert them from the adjacent saloons. As such an extension would create a liability of about $2,000 per annum, we must await the action of some friendly and generous contributor, who will take a personal interest in the establishment of a new station.*

We notice with pleasure the public commendation by District Attorney Philbin, "of the established clubs or rooms for seamen and sailors which have proved very successful, furnishing to such men a refuge from the saloon or bar-room, and greatly adding to their self-respect."

Our opportunities for usefulness are greatly expanding. As less than nine per cent. of American exports and imports are now transported in American vessels, there is reason to believe that the demand for American ships and sailors will rapidly increase. The Navy Department alone calls for 4,000 additional officers and seamen for our growing navy. The demand of the merchant marine will reach at least a hundred thousand more. Our Society will do the work pressing upon it, if the necessary funds can be obtained.

The results accomplished by Dr. J. D. Hay, the medical officer attached to our Pike Street Mission, call for recognition. He has examined all seamen sent him by the Legal Aid Society, for reports as to their physical and mental ability to perform sea duty and their need for hospital treatment, and has attended more than 100 seamen each month, free of charge, in addition to his regular duties of Colporteur. This medical service is a new departure and yields very satisfactory returns, as introductory to missionary work and improved conditions.

We have lost from our number one honorary member, Mr. J. Hooker Hamersley, who for many years had been interested in our work; and still another great loss came to the Society when its valued and most devoted Treasurer, Mr. John Jewell Smith, was removed by death. So great was the respect and gratitude felt for him by his associates in the Board, that they placed upon the walls of the Church of the Holy Comforter a memorial tablet, whereon are inscribed these words: "Faithful to the End;" words well fitted to the man. We shall long and sincerely mourn his loss. Mr. Smith left to the Society a legacy of $1,000, but no other legacy has come to us during the year. As the work of our Society was, by resolution, unanimously commended by the last Diocesan Convention, it would seem that the clergy and their congregations might well endeavor to do more for our treasury, which is now in such pressing need of funds, as will be apparent if one glances at the Treasurer's report. It is not easy to understand why testators should be so indifferent to the claims of the seamen, and so generally ignore them. Certainly the men who went forth upon the waters were not thus treated by Christ. May we not hope that the days for the kindly consideration of seamen will return?

Tuesday, December 10, 1901.

*The proposed reading-room, No. 1 State Street, has been opened and furnished in the hope that means will be provided for its maintenance. If funds cannot be obtained the station can be discontinued.

The Rev. Dr. Cole presented the following report:

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The work at St. Stephen's College during the past year has gone on steadily along the lines indicated in the report for last year. The entire Department of English has been reorganized under the able direction of the Rev. Thomas H. Yardley, and now offers opportunity for thorough and modern work in this important subject.

The Rev. William W. Olssen, D.D., for over thirty years connected with the Faculty, and for over fifty years a member of this Convention, has retired from the Chair of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and has been made Professor Emeritus by the Board of Trustees. Too much cannot be said in praise of Dr. Olssen's faithfulness and diligence during this long term of office, and his retirement makes vacant a place hard to fill.

Mr. George B. Pfeiffer, M.S., has been appointed acting Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy and has already begun an efficient and active organization of his work in that department. This would be a most appropriate time for the re-equipment of the Physical Laboratory of the College, which is entirely inadequate for the work offered.

As this is the first year in which no students enter from the Preparatory Department, recently abolished, there is a slight reduction in the total number of students, though not in the actual number taking work of college grade. We have this Fall strictly enforced our entrance requirements, which are the same in amount as those of Columbia and other large colleges, and have, in consequence, rejected four or five applicants for every one we have allowed to enter college. In view of our small numbers this is rather discouraging, but it is the only basis on which a Church College ought to be conducted, and must win confidence and support in the long run.

Again we must urge upon the Convention the reality of the opportunity at St. Stephen's College. We have here buildings, grounds and equipment of an estimated value of $233,000, College Endowment Funds of $100,953.98, an annual grant from the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning of $5,500, and other temporary annual donations amounting to nearly $7,000. The Trustees have said positively that St. Stephen's College shall be continued, and with this equipment and income it can be continued indefinitely in a way. But is the Diocese of New York willing to have the only Church institution of higher education in her borders equipped in any but the best and most approved way? It would take but a comparatively small amount to equip the College thoroughly for its work, and this amount ought not to be denied. What we are doing we believe we are doing well, and we only await the opportunity to enlarge our scope and improve our efficiency.

LAWRENCE T. COLE,
Warden.

The Secretary presented the following report:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that the work of the past year has been successfully completed. The income of the Fund has been distributed in the usual manner. Six clergymen of the Diocese have had their small parochial salaries augmented by appropriations from the Board.

The property 575 West 145th Street of which mention was made in the last annual report has been placed on the market for sale, but as yet no purchaser has been found at a price satisfactory to the Board. With the increased transit facilities now in progress it is thought that the property will be sold without loss of principal invested.

Five meetings of the Board have been held during the Conventional year, and the Trustees have been successful in granting every request for assistance submitted to them.

The terms of office of Mr. Wm. Alexander Smith and Mr. A. R. Flower will expire on October 1, 1902. Two persons should be elected by the Convention to succeed them.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is herewith annexed.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

NEW YORK, September 22, 1902.

W. PIERSON HAMILTON,
Treasurer.

Examined and found correct.

J. HERMAN KINNICUTT,

E. TOWNSEND IRWIN.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. William Alexander Smith and Mr. A. R. Flower were elected to succeed themselves as Trustees of the Parochial Fund for the term of three years ending October 1, 1905.

Mr. Charles H. Russell, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred a proposed amendment to Canon VII., respectfully report that they recommend that Canon VII., "Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports," be amended by the insertion of a new Section 5, to follow the present Section 4, and to read as follows: "The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint;" and that the present Section 5 shall become Section 6.

The committee would further recommend that the amendment to the Constitution, approved by the last Convention, be again approved and finally adopted, to wit:

That Article I. of the Constitution be amended by striking out the first completed sentence of that article, which now reads as follows: "There shall be a convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee," and by substituting in lieu thereof the following words:

"There shall be a convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year, at such place as the Bishop shall appoint. It shall be held on the last Wednesday in September, unless the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee, shall appoint another date. In case of the inability of the Bishop to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall appoint the time and place of holding the convention."

On motion, the foregoing amendment to Canon VII. was adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders.

On motion, the amendment to the Constitution was again approved and finally adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report:

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

In this, its Third Annual Report, the Sunday-school Commission feels that it should, so far as possible, present such a statement as may furnish grounds for its definite approval or disapproval before the Convention. It is simply a Commission appointed to do a certain work, and a work, however we may personally regard it, of growing importance in the Church at large and among all Christian people. No nation supports with larger munificence than ours the secular education of its youth. No nation and no church should exceed our own in the persistent and patient devotion to the religious education of the young. Instead of regarding this work as one of secondary importance, it is in fact of primary rank. The State distinctly lays this work upon the Church. It is one of those responsibilities that admit of no denial. The Church that does not adequately, intelligently, and with enthusiasm, teach her youth in religion, will forfeit the devotion and service of her youth.

Is the Sunday-school Commission worth while? Will it pay the Diocese of New York to support it?

1. Let us note briefly the present situation. Since the appointment of the Commission four years ago, no less than fifteen other Commissions and Institutes have been organized, in Canada and our own country, and these have followed very largely the line of our own. The Massachusetts Commission is now duplicating our Sunday-school Exhibit; the California Commission has asked permission to reissue four of our Reading Courses for Teachers, and has also arranged an Exhibit and Training Classes similar to ours, and is gathering a Circulating Reference Library. So strongly has this whole movement impressed the Church in California, that one man has come forward with an annual pledge of $500 for the work of that Commission. Professor Herbert W. Gates, of Chicago University, in a letter some months ago reviewing the needs of the present day Sunday-school, writes: "The plans of your Committee seem to me to be the most likely to solve our problems."

We might largely add to these testimonies, showing that the work done has not been local in its influence, and that small as our results seem to us, they have, at least, the value of wide recognition. We have been grateful to add our contribution towards solving a problem so far-reaching and so confessedly difficult. Indeed, one of the chief encouragements in our work has been this accumulating evidence that the Commission stands for no individual and fanciful scheme of its own, but for something whose importance is felt on every hand. If we were to drop our work in this Diocese, and discharge our Commission, there are others who would at once take up our task. The cause of the religious education of the young has reached a point from which there can, in fact, be no return.

2. The Training Classes of the year were at first held at the Diocesan House. This locality proved inconvenient, however. Only four classes were held there. The others were at St. Luke's Church, Zion and St. Timothy's, St. George's, St. Michael's, Holy Trinity, Harlem, St. Thomas', Mamaroneck, Church of the Messiah, Brooklyn. St. Andrew's combined with Holy Trinity, the Intercession with St. Mary's, Manhattanville, and the schools proximate to Mamaroneck joined with St. Thomas' Church in that town.

The teachers of these classes were the Rev. Henry H. Oberly, D.D., Dr. Walter L. Hervey, the Rev. Dr. Charles Fagnani, the Rev. H. P. Nichols, Professor Hubbell, of the Erasmus Hall High School, the Rev. Dr. Charles B. Nies, of the Palestine Exploration Fund, Mrs. Antoinette Bryant Hervey, and Miss Ada M. Skinner, of St. Agatha's School. The subjects covered were, The Character and Teachings of Christ; The History of the Life of Christ; The Prayer Book; The Principles of Teaching; The Geography of the Bible; The Use of Pictures in Teaching; Methods of Teaching the Church Catechism. More than three hundred have attended these Training Classes. Upward of twenty-five out of this number have passed written examinations and received certificates.

In this connection let us note the spread of the training class idea. Very fine courses were last winter conducted under the auspices of the Union Theological Seminary in this city, and with a highly gratifying attendance. There is now being arranged within our own Church in the city of Rochester, N. Y., a plan for similar progressive training work this winter.

The schedule for this year's training classes in our Diocese will be published very shortly.

3. The Crypt Conference was held on May 5. Of the subjects presented, two were of unusual interest. E. P. St. John, Ph.D., spoke on the Study of the Child, and Miss C. G. O'Grady upon Primary Sunday-school Work in the Light of the Primary Day-school. Her paper was extremely suggestive, and has been printed by the Commission. It can be purchased for five cents at the Commission office.

4. Members of the Commission have spoken at State Conventions at Diocesan and Archdeaconry meetings in this and other States, at Summe

Conferences, and have met the Sunday-school teachers in many of our city parishes. But we have not to any great extent gotten into touch with the out-of-town parishes of this Diocese. This demands more freedom for travel than any of our members now have. Much, however, has been accomplished through the Commission office and its Sunday-school Exhibit. This is proving a sort of clearing house for the interchange of ideas and the illustration of methods.

5. THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL EXHIBIT. The success of this has been beyond our expectation. It is a remarkable collection already, and is constantly increasing. Over one thousand additions have been made to it this year. We have undoubtedly the most complete collection of card pictures to be found, embracing no less than eleven different series, covering every possible variety of pictures, costing from one-half cent to 70 cents each. Our library furnishes an invaluable guide to those schools desiring to establish Teachers' Reference Libraries of their own.

This will explain how the Commission has been driven, as it were to act as agent for many who selected from samples shown them at our office. Over five hundred orders have been received this year, covering goods put out by about fifty different publishing houses. These orders have come from parishes as widely separated as Boston, Oregon and Texas. This does not mean that we are making money, but rather that we are thus coming into practical and helpful touch with earnest Sunday-school workers throughout the Church.

6. TREASURER'S REPORT. In submitting the statement of receipts and expenditures for the past year, the treasurer, Mr. H. H. Pike, urges that an effort be made during the Convention to secure the necessary funds to carry on the work for the ensuing year.

The statement shows that the Commission received funds and pledges barely sufficient to meet its current expenses, although strenuous efforts were put forth promptly to raise the necessary $1,500 to $2,000. The Commission did not feel justified in incurring obligations without a reasonable pledge of financial support, and this was not obtained until the month of January. The most effective working months for the Commission are those immediately following the Convention, and any plan proposed should always provide for early subscriptions, of which a part should be payable in October.

7. COMMISSION PUBLICATIONS. The first book put forth by the Commission, "The Principles of Religious Education," has proved a notable success. It was at once recognized as a new and distinct contribution to the subject. Its influence is not likely to die out for some time to come, and in at least one theological seminary, it has been adopted as the basis of a course on religious pedagogy.

Some months ago, the Commission entered into arrangements with the Young Churchman Company, with a view to the publication of such lesson books and other material as should from time to time be put forth by the Commission. The following is a summary of these, together with one lesson book published last year by Edwin S. Gorham, of New York.

These lessons are carefully graded and adapted to schools requiring from twenty-six to forty lessons per year, with reviews and examinations. They provide for home study and written answer work. Pictures and hand work are suggested, with good maps and charts.

The five series to be issued this Fall are:

"Old Testament Stories," two sets of courses (a year each), for children from nine to twelve years of age.

"The Life of Jesus Christ," a one-year course, for children from twelve to fourteen years of age.

"St. Paul and the First Christian Missionaries," a one-year course, for children from thirteen to fifteen years of age.

"The Character and Teachings of Jesus Christ," a one-year course, for children from fourteen to seventeen. (Published by Gorham, New York.)

All of the courses are in two parts, but sold by subscription for the year at not over 20 cents for each course.

In addition to the above courses, and sold by the Commission to fit in with the above curriculum, are the following courses on the Source Method, by the Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr., Ph.D., a member of the Commission:

"Illustrated Lessons on the Church Catechism," 15 lessons with suggested pictures, 10 cents net, for children from nine to eleven.

"Lessons on the Christian Year" (30) for children from nine to eleven. Cloth, 20 cents net.

"Lessons in Geography of the Land of the Bible" (8), for beginners in the Bible. Paper, 10 cents net. Teachers' Aid for same, 5 cents net.

"Lessons on the Prayer Book" (30), for children from eleven to thirteen. Cloth, 25 cents net.

"Lessons on Christian Doctrine" (30), for children of the Confirmation age. Cloth, 30 cents net.

Here, for example, is the way one of our largest schools, St. Andrew's, Harlem, has been graded, showing in a practical way how the Sunday-school Commission has been of use:

I. KINDERGARTEN: "Cushman's Club Lessons." Illustrated.

II. PRIMARY:

(a) "Smith's Church Catechism." Illustrated.

(b) "Church Catechism," with note books and pictures. Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr.

III. MAIN SCHOOL:

(a) Juniors—"Life of Christ," with note books and pictures. S. S. Commission.

(b) Seniors—"The Character and Teachings of Christ." S. S. Commission.

IV. BIBLE CLASSES:

"Christian Doctrine." Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr.

"St. Paul's Missionary Journeys." S. S. Commission.

The Commission believes that already it has reached a point where it will pay the busy Rector and Superintendent to carefully examine its stock. Again we ask, "Does it pay?"

8. THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION. The resolution passed at the last Convention asking for specific attention on the part of the General Convention to the pedagogical training of theological students, did not elicit any action from that body. But this does not mean that the action of our Diocese has entirely failed. During the last year a lectureship on this subject was established in the general theological seminary, and it was the direct result, as the late distinguished Dean of that school most kindly testified, of this very movement started here in our Diocese. The attitude of our theological schools is perceptibly changing in this respect, and we may look forward with larger hope to the ministry of the future as one that shall be better equipped for the religious teaching of the young than is the ministry of to-day.

A recent speaker of large experience has called attention to the importance of the Sunday-school as the great means to-day by which the Church is to reach the masses of our population. The propaganda of religion must do its most effective work on the young, because it cannot reach the older ones.

And this cannot be done without knowledge and consecration and profoundest devotion. It will demand unwearied patience, the finest skill and method we can bring to the work. It is one thing to take the child and hold him by force of authority for a few years, only to find him slip out of our helpless grasp because we have never learned to know and save him. It is quite another thing to take the child and so understand and teach and impress him that we have anchored him forever to the faith and heart of Jesus Christ.

An old legend tells of a time when a great drought lay upon the land, and men cried everywhere to God for rain, but still no answer came. Into a company gathered for prayer there came one whose aspect was venerable and mild, of gentle and beautiful spirit. He heard the story of their fruitless supplication, and then, lifting his eyes to heaven, he uttered a simple prayer in their behalf, and lo, the refreshing showers gathered and fell upon the earth. In amazement they crowded about him to learn his name, and the secret of his power. And he, with gentle grace, made answer: "I am known as one who is the teacher of little children."

It is but a legend and yet may it not be true that God will withhold from us His richest gift until we have learned to give our richest service to His little children?

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary; but, no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending September, 1903.

The trustees report the purchase by them of \$8,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ Bonds at 106 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 106 $\frac{1}{2}$, and $\frac{1}{2}\%$ commission, for the "General Fund," and of \$6,000 of the same securities at 106 $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}\%$ commission for the "Residence Fund," and request the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese having reported the purchase by them, as an investment of a portion of the funds in their hands, of \$8,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ Bonds at 106 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 106 $\frac{1}{2}$, and $\frac{1}{2}\%$ commission, for the "General Fund," and of \$6,000 of the same securities at 106 $\frac{1}{2}$, and $\frac{1}{2}\%$ commission, for the "Residence Fund," such action and purchase by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund is approved.

The Trustees report the receipt by them of the sum of $2,500, which was expended in accordance with the instructions of the following letter:

"April 4, 1902. 209 Madison Avenue.

"JOHN McLEAN NASH, Esq.,

Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund.

"MY DEAR MR. NASH: You will find enclosed a check for the sum of two thousand and five hundred dollars ($2,500), from an unnamed donor who wishes to give it to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York, to be used in accordance with the following statement:

"Believing that the Diocese of New York as a Diocese should not only support the Bishop, but also provide an adequate sum for assistance to the Bishop in the maintenance of his office staff, and in the carrying on of his increasing official duties, it is desired that this money be given to the Trustees, and by the Trustees given in bulk to the Bishop of New York. It is requested that the Bishop use it for the compensation of such Bishops as he may from time to time ask to assist him; for the salaries of such clerks as the work of his office may call for; and then for any other use that may facilitate his duties.

"Should the Trustees feel unable for any reason to use this money without the consent of the Diocesan Convention, as the donor wishes no delay in its use, the Trustees may return it. The donor, however, wishes to make it diocesan and not personal, with the hope that the Episcopal Fund may itself be soon increased.

"I am yours very truly,

"WILLIAM M. GROSVENOR."

The attention of the Trustees having been called to the possibility of the election of a coadjutor to the Bishop of the Diocese, it was resolved to recommend to the consideration of the Convention the following resolution:

Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop of the Diocese be fixed at $15,000 a year; and

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of two per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

It was further resolved to recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York be, and they are hereby, authorized to invest the "Residence Fund" in their hands in the erection of a residence for the Bishop upon a plot of ground to be conveyed to them by the Cathedral Church of St. John, when such conveyance in satisfactory form shall have been received by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON CANONS, SEPTEMBER 25, 1902.

1. The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the amendment to the Rules of Order proposed by the Rev. Mr. Chew, respectfully recommends that the amendment be adopted, so that the Rules of Order shall be amended as follows:

In Rule I., Section 8, insert a new sub-section: "(10) Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese."

In Rule II., omit Section 8: "Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese;" and renumber the following sections of Rule II., so that they shall become Sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, respectively.

2. The Committee on Canons, to which was referred the report of the special committee on Parochial Intrusion and Parish Boundaries, which was presented to the Convention of 1901, respectfully reports, that it has considered the matter referred to it and that it recommends the repeal of the present Canon XIV., and the substitution in lieu thereof of the Canon appended to this report, and that the proposed new Canon XIV. be printed in the journal of this Convention and referred to the next Convention for its action.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the Parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

(3) The committee recommends that the amendment proposed by Dr.

Harris be adopted by this Convention, with certain changes in phraseology, so that Canon II. shall be amended as follows:

Insert a new Section 15, to follow the present Section 14, and to read as follows:

Sec. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

And that the present Sections 15, 16 and 17 shall become Sections 16, 17 and 18, respectively.

On motion, the amendment to the Rules of Order recommended by the committee was adopted.

On motion, the recommendation of the committee for the printing of the proposed new Canon XIV. and its reference to the next Convention was adopted; and on further motion of the Rev. Lea Luquer, the Secretary of the Convention was instructed to send to every clergyman of the Diocese at least thirty days before the meeting of the next Annual Convention three printed copies of the proposed amendment to Canon XIV.

On motion, the amendment to Canon II. was adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders.

At this point the Bishop of the Diocese again took the chair.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention respectfully suggests to the Trustees of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the expediency of erecting on their grounds, as soon as their resources shall permit, a Synod House, primarily for the purposes of the Church in this Diocese and incidentally for those of the Church at large.

The Rev. James E. Freeman presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Bishop of this Diocese has presented in his Charge for the consideration of the clergy and laity the subject of temperance reform, and

Whereas, This Convention recognizes the timeliness of this appeal and the urgent need of responding to its stirring demands;

Resolved, That this Convention pledges itself to a vigorous crusade against intemperance in its every aspect, and that the clergy be requested to undertake in their respective parishes, through the pulpit and their parochial agencies, a course of action looking to a correction of existing abuses.

Mr. James Pott presented the following reports:

The Convention reassembled after recess.

Resolved, That the said Committee have power to correspond with authorities of the other Dioceses in the State of New York, with a view to concerted action, should such concerted action be found necessary or desirable

And that there was one vacancy in the list of clerical deputies caused by a failure of concurrence between the clerical and lay vote.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, Ph.D., was elected as a deputy.

The Rev. H. R. Hulse presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, It is understood that a committee of clergymen of Greater New York is about to arrange for a series of missionary meetings in New York and Brooklyn during Advent, 1902, Resolved, That this Convention hereby expresses its approval of the proposed action.

The order of the day having been called, the Convention proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas presented the following report of the Archdeacon of Orange :

The work during the year now completed has been carried through on essentially the same lines as last year; and the missionary staff has undergone but little change. The summer work in the mountains has received all attention possible. A new organ has been purchased for Christ Church, Mead's Mount, and services were regularly maintained there during August. An item of decided encouragement at Greenwood Lake Mission is the decision of the trustees to convey the property to the Episcopal Church. Its value is estimated at five thousand dollars. This is a direct consequence of our missionary work there, missionary work under the direct supervision of the Archdeacon, but to which for years no appropriation has been made. Owing to our increased responsibility as a Church to a mission about to be incorporated under the governance of our Bishop and Diocese, the Archdeaconry has just made an appropriation of one hundred dollars to meet a pledge of the same amount from the local trustees, in order that the most successful summer services shall suffer no serious intermission; but that active ministrations shall be continued during the coming winter months. Here is a Sunday-school of eighty scholars, and some twenty-five communicants are resident all the year round. Another item of progress is the decision by her sons to erect a parish house for St. John's Church, at High Falls, Ulster County, as a memorial to their mother, the late Mrs. Delafield, of blessed memory throughout that whole township and its contiguous parts. She was truly a mother in Israel, constant in good works and consecrated to the service of God and man. All Saints', Rosendale, St. Peter's, Stone Ridge, as well as St. John's, High Falls, will ever bear her name in grateful remembrance. Mrs. Delafield was a sister of the late John Bard, Esq., of Annandale; so well known as the principal founder of St. Stephen's College.

Reference was made in my last annual report to the promising nature of the mission at Montgomery, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lewis, of Walden; and the sum of five hundred dollars was mentioned as being then in hand towards the erection of a chapel. That sum has now grown to eleven hundred dollars, and the foundation will be begun just as soon as two thousand dollars shall have been secured or definitely promised. An eligible lot has already been acquired. Having personally inspected this field, I can heartily commend it as an excellent opportunity for the Church to obtain a firm footing in an intelligent and thrifty community appreciating her services and loyally desirous of giving her a permanent home. I trust that aid in the shape of generous contributions from churches and individuals may be given this mission at Montgomery. The Rector of Monticello, Sullivan County, has maintained a mission at White Lake during that portion of the summer when guests most frequent that attractive resort. He hopes to continue the same next year, and would welcome the assistance of any clergy who may be summering in that region.

It is a great pleasure to report that our parishes and missions have contributed according to their ability to the work of Diocesan missions, and with the supplemental and highly appreciated aid rendered by the appropriation from the general fund all stipends have been promptly paid to date.

The Treasurer will furnish a list of the missionaries receiving appropriations and of the amount of stipend in each case; but the amount paid to each rector and missionary by the respective parishes and missions has not been reported to the Archdeacon; and he is therefore unable to furnish the same.

A list of the missionaries has been sent to the Secretary of the Convention to be inserted in the journal.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. THOMAS,
Archdeacon of Orange.

In behalf of Dr. Tiffany the following report was presented of the Archdeaconry of New York:

During the year last past the work of Church extension in the Borough of the Bronx, which is the chief work of the Archdeaconry of New York, has progressed favorably. It has both expanded and been strengthened. The field of work is so extended and is so constantly and rapidly offering new opportunities for exertion that to stand still is to fall back. There is thus a constant call for new and enlarged effort.

The precise statistics of the year's work will be given in the report to the Archdeaconry at its annual meeting in Advent. Here it will suffice to indicate certain general features of the last year's progress. One of those features of great importance is the enlightened interest and practical aid of the Rector and corporation of Trinity Church, New York. In response to the statement and appeal of a committee authorized and appointed at the annual meeting of the Archdeaconry in St. Thomas's Church last Advent, and endorsed and commended by the Bishop of the Diocese, the corporation of Trinity Church appropriated the sum of thirty thousand dollars to be expended in the purchase of land for the new missions in the Borough of the Bronx. This furnished aid in a most needed department of the work. For the price of land is high within any part of the city's limits, and, high as it now is, is constantly increasing and is soon rapidly to augment by reason of the facility of approach caused by the completion of the rapid transit line of railroad in the near future. And yet experience teaches that until a mission is definitely acquired a mission cannot be securely established. It makes no appeal of permanence to the surrounding neighborhood, if it has no steadfast abiding place. Interest at once quickens and active help is secured when there is a sense of security in the possession of a site. As the result of this benefaction of Trinity Church an excellent site of three city lots has been secured for our colored mission of St. David's, and efforts are now active to secure a church and parish building to be built upon it. Negotiations are also in progress to secure a fitting site for the chapel of the advocate and if possible for one more chapel. For large as a gift of thirty thousand dollars seems it has not a large purchasing power in the acquisition of real estate in the city of New York. However, with these three missions securely located the Archdeaconry will have six missions (counting St. Stephen's, Woodlawn; St. George's, Williamsbridge, and St. Alban's, High Bridge) permanently placed. St. Stephen's and St. George's are the fruit of the work of previous years, but St. Alban's as a permanently located mission, with a chapel of its own, is the outcome of the work of the last year. Through the unceasing and wisely directed efforts of the Deacon in charge, two lots have been secured by the gift of benevolent Churchwomen, and a small but neat and churchly chapel has been erected through the handsome gift of another Churchwoman, supplemented by the untiring efforts of the Superintendent of the mission, aided by the self-sacrificing contributions of his little flock. This whole property is out of debt and is now in condition to grow healthfully with the growth of its commanding neighborhood.

I would that the Chapel of St. Edmund at West Tremont, and of St. Simeon's at Melrose, and Holy Nativity at Bedford Park could find generous benefactors to thus set them upon their feet; and that the Atonement and Holy Spirit and St. Martha's and all our tentative missions might elicit a wider and deeper interest from Churchmen set to advance the Church in some adequate proportion to the advance of the city. It is surely a work not less important in comparison than any other, to maintain the paramount influence of our Church in our city, and this can only be done by continually extending it in our rapidly growing suburbs.

To this work the Archdeaconry of New York is pledged. It is endorsed by the Bishop and our foremost rectors as wise and timely. It has called forth the devoted exertions of that noble body, "the Lay Helpers' Association," for whose self-sacrificing labors the Church cannot be too grateful, for to them we chiefly owe the twelve existent missions. The Archdeaconry claims, therefore, by reason of the importance of its work and its strenuous efforts to develop it, the deep sympathy, the unceasing exertions, and the large and generous benefactions of all our churches and people.

C. C. TIFFANY,

Archdeacon, New York.

The following report was presented in behalf of the Rev. Dr. Johnson, Archdeacon of Richmond:

Since the Advent meeting of the Archdeaconry, there have been but few changes; and the general condition, as indicated by the reports, is decidedly improved.

The Rev. Mr. Fair, of Tottenville, reports a cancelling of the deficiency of nearly four hundred dollars by the earnest efforts of the Church Guild, the payment of the Rectory Fund, and a pledge for three hundred dollars per year for current expenses. Every department of Church work has shown a most commendable energy, and the prospects of the parish are in every way encouraging.

The mission at Newdorp, since the resignation of Mr. Wilson, has been under the charge of Mr. Stowell, and the work has gone on with great spirit. The Sunday-school is in excellent condition, the Sunday services are well attended, and the various organizations actively at work. Holy Communion is administered monthly by the Archdeacon, and there is every prospect of the mission soon becoming a self-supporting parish.

At Eltingville, the services have been carried on by Mr. Behringer, tions and of the amount of stipend in each case; but the amount paid to each rector and missionary by the respective parishes and missions has not been reported to the Archdeacon; and he is therefore unable to furnish the same.

A list of the missionaries has been sent to the Secretary of the Convention to be inserted in the journal.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. THOMAS,
Archdeacon of Orange.

who has done faithful work in the Sunday-school, and in the parish. Several candidates were confirmed by the Bishop, baptisms have been performed, and Communion administered monthly by the Archdeacon.

The Rev. J. A. McCausland has assumed the charge of Erastina, which has been in the hands of a lay reader since Mr. Swan's resignation. The large increase in the population of that section of the island gives an encouraging prospect of growth for the Church, and the congregation is faithful and energetic.

St. Simon's, Concord, under the Rev. Mr. Thompson, has continued its progress, and will soon be on a firm basis—both in Church work, and financially.

Mr. Whitlock's removal has been a serious loss to the mission, but the congregation are doing their best to carry on the work towards which he helped so materially.

The thanks of the Archdeaconry are specially due to Mr. Arnold, the Treasurer, who has so faithfully and efficiently discharged the duties of that office, so long filled by Mr. Whitlock.

GEORGE D. JOHNSON,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck presented the following report of the Archdeacon of Westchester:

The past year has been marked in the work of this Archdeaconry by signs of growth, and more aggressive effort, than we have known before. There has been but one loss in our clerical force, by the removal of the Rev. Charles Smith Lewis, priest in charge of the chapel of St. Joseph of Arimathea, Worthington. Mr. Lewis did efficient service in this mission and his leaving it will be felt in the community. We have had an experience this year very rare in our history. The Rev. Henry Chamberlaine of St. Mark's, Mt. Kisco, and the Rev. Gouverneur Cruger, of Montrose, have ceased to be missionaries of our body, as their work has become self-supporting. These notable cases of growth, and self-respecting independence, following a like one last year, when Christ Church, Suffern, through its Rector, the Rev. R. S. Mansfield, relinquished its stipend, are worthy of all praise to the reverend clergy and their cures.

All Saints', Harrison—from the first vigorous and successful—and served by the Rev. Dr. Kirkby and the Rev. Mr. German, now declares its intention of supporting a resident missionary; and is about to be enrolled among the mission stations of the Archdeaconry. There is a beautiful church and parish room; a lot adjoining the church has been given for a rectory, which is to be built at once. Meanwhile, the people provide a house for the missionary to be appointed. An endowment of about five thousand dollars has also been secured for this work. We are glad to record that St. John's Parish, Yonkers, has begun an important work in the extreme northerly part of that city. A chapel has been given by a generous woman of the parish; a Sunday-school and services are being carried on by the clergy of St. John's. In Putnam County, and at Lake Mahopac, the work of the Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe has been signally blessed. Four years ago a rectory was built at the lake, and a loan was made by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to the Southern Missionary Convocation for its completion. This mortgage of twenty-three hundred dollars has been paid, and Mr. Sutcliffe and his generous friends have rendered an exceptional service to the Church. The rectory affording a home for the missionary has given permanent character to our mission in that region. At the request of the Archdeacon, Mr. Sutcliffe has started a mission at West Somers. There is already a Sunday-school conducted by two earnest women; goodly numbers attend the services. A lot has been given for a chapel, and deep interest has been shown in the neighborhood. In Rockland County, the Rev. Mr. Stephens labors on with untiring zeal, and covers much ground in his faithful ministry. The Rev. Mr. Masker, of Haverstraw, at our request, has begun tentative services at Congers, a small place hard by his own work. For several years the Archdeacon has been hoping to get an opening at this station, and the time now seems ripe for it. The Churchwomen of the Vaughan Teachers' Rest at Tomkin's Cove have this summer made repairs in Grace Church at that place. We would record our grateful acknowledgment for this labor of love. We are glad and grateful, that by the generous gifts of the churches in New York and by our own, we have been able to prosecute our mission with prompt payment of our obligations, and we trust that the cheering signs we note are true tokens of the blessing of the blessed Lord on our work.

All which we would respectfully submit,

F. B. VAN KLEECK,

Archdeacon of Westchester.

The Rev. A. T. Ashton presented the following report of the Archdeacon of Dutchess:

The Archdeaconry of Dutchess reports that the work has been carried on with gratifying success. One station has been added to its list of missions—making ten in all.

Some changes have been made in the personnel of the working force. It is with sincere regret that we report the retirement from the active discharge of his ministry of the Rev. J. S. Clark, D.D., the missionary at Amenia Union and Dover Plains.

Dr. Clark has served the Church for nearly fifty years. He was for seventeen years Dean of the Dutchess Convocation, being appointed to that office in 1868 by Bishop Horatio Potter. During the greater part of his ministerial life, he has been engaged as Dean, Teacher, Pastor, and Missionary within the limits of Dutchess County. By his fidelity and wisdom, by his broad Christian charity and his deep spiritual earnestness, he has exerted an influence that cannot soon fade away or be forgotten. It was with a profound sense of its indebtedness to Dr. Clark that the Archdeaconry at the spring meeting spoke its word, first of appreciation, and then of regret.

The Rev. Charles Douglas succeeded the Rev. Dr. Clark in the charge of Amenia Union and Dover Plains. The work in these two places is in much the same condition as in the past. A class of eight was confirmed at Dover. There is real need of a church at this place, with a resident clergyman, who should also have charge of all the services in the Harlem Valley. Were the funds available for this purpose, a strong parish could soon be established at Dover, which would itself soon become a centre of missionary activity, viz.: at Pawling, Millerton, and the region adjacent to Chestnut Ridge.

The Church at Glenham is still served by the Rector of Trinity Church, Fishkill. There can be very little growth here for the factories are still closed, and the mission can do little more than meet its current expenses. There is a small endowment, the income of which is not at present available. The Rev. Mr. Ivie is doing all that could be expected under existing circumstances.

At Hopewell Junction—the Rev. D. B. Ray, missionary,—the outlook is most encouraging. This is a railroad centre and a very important post. The population is increasing. The village is largely composed of those who are connected with the railroads and creamery, and the Church has secured a strong hold upon their affections. The mission meets all its current expenses, has lately renovated the church, and pays one hundred dollars per annum to the funds of the Archdeaconry. The congregations are larger, and the life of the Church is being strengthened in a wise and conservative manner.

Pleasant Valley is at present vacant owing to the resignation of the Rev. Frederick Smith, who for five years served the Church efficiently. Since Mr. Smith's resignation the Church has been served by lay readers. It is expected that a priest will take up the work early in October. The Rev. H. N. Lawrence is missionary at Pine Plains. This village is situated in the northeast part of the county, and the Church here could not maintain services, were it not for the assistance rendered by the Archdeaconry. There is no place near by from which the congregation could be served. Since our last report, there have been thirteen baptized and six confirmed in this parish. The mission raises three hundred dollars per annum for the Archdeaconry. It has, in the past year, raised four hundred and fifty dollars in addition, which has been used in reducing the mortgage on the rectory. Church and rectory are in excellent repair. There still remains a debt of three hundred and fifty dollars on the rectory, which, it is hoped, will soon be paid. The Rector has identified himself with the interests of the village and is making the influence of the Church felt in the community. He maintains a mission at Bethel, some five miles distant from Pine Plains. In August last the forty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of this work by the Rev. Frederick Sill, sometime missionary of Dutchess Convocation, was observed.

Pawling and Reynoldsville.—The Rev. W. H. Meldrum of Patterson, in the Archdeaconry of Westchester, is in charge of this work in Dutchess. He holds occasional services at Pawling. At Reynoldsville, services are held every Sunday evening with an average attendance of fifty. There is a Sunday-school of twenty-eight scholars. This service is held immediately before the evening service, and most of the congregation is present for the catechising and instruction at the close of the session of the Sunday-school. The nearest church is three miles distant. About one hundred and fifty persons live within a radius of a mile of the mission, which is held in an abandoned Methodist building. Not a single communicant of the Church is in the place, and only one who, by baptism and early training, may be said to belong to us. This work was begun in the early spring, and there is a growing interest among the people. The Archdeaconry contributes one hundred and eighty dollars per year for its support.

Lithgow.—The Rev. W. C. Rodgers holds a weekly service at the old mother parish at Lithgow. Millbrook is now the self-supporting parish and Lithgow the mission. It was the privilege of the Archdeacon to be present at the opening of the fine new church at Millbrook on June 8th, the second Sunday after Trinity, to preach at the service and to administer the Holy Communion. This church is to be consecrated in October on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Archdeaconry.

The school and mission at Stone House, West Pawling, are still under the care of Mr. A. C. Burdick, whose work is patient and enthusiastic, and whose influence upon the community is evidenced in the improved lives and character of those who come under his instructions.

Mention should also be made of the Sunday-school and mission at Manchester Bridge, six miles east of Poughkeepsie, maintained by Mr. W. H. Hart and his sister. Services are held in a school-house every Sunday evening, and when a priest cannot be secured a lay reader is in charge. This work, as well as most of the other missions in this county, is visited annually by the Archdeacon.

The Archdeaconry has cause for thankfulness that the financial con-

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $9,900 be appropriated for missionary work in the Diocese outside the limits of the city of New York, and that sum be apportioned as follows:

For Archdeaconry of Dutchess.	$2,500
For Archdeaconry of Orange.	3,200
For Archdeaconry of Westchester.	3,000
For Archdeaconry of Richmond.	1,200

Report

OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The New York Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions respectfully presents its second Annual Report as an organized body working under a constitution.

Owing to the well-laid foundations of the Auxiliary as a whole, for which we are chiefly indebted to our late honorary secretary, Mrs. Twing, there have been no radical departures from her scheme, but the experience of two years has proved the wisdom of the present organization in this Diocese, as affording more system and greater efficiency in disposing of the work so rapidly enlarging. While we may not be able to show an increased total in money, still the unprecedented attendance at the annual or Bishop's meeting, held in St. James' Church and Parish House the first Wednesday in Advent, together with the sustained interest throughout the day of those present, many of whom stood during the afternoon addresses, seems to evidence a wider knowledge of our work and a responsive feeling towards it, from both clergy and members of the Auxiliary. We were favored in hearing the Missionary Bishops of Alaska and Brazil, and a touching plea for Africa from Miss Higgins, as well as speakers from Mexico and Assyria. The cause of the negroes of the South was advocated by the Rector of St. Thomas' Church, himself a Southerner, and acquainted with their needs. The offerings were five times larger than the previous year, exclusive of special gifts to some of the speakers, to be used at their discretion. We cannot put into words or figures the far-reaching influence of that day upon those privileged to see and hear the heroes on the battle-field of missions, but we feel convinced that a new interest in missions was aroused in the hearts of many.

In February, a Quiet Day was conducted by Bishop Brent, of the Philippine Islands, in the Church of the Incarnation, and notwithstanding very stormy weather, the attendance and offerings were larger than at any similar service ever conducted by Bishop Brent. The offerings were sent to the Board of Missions for the work in the Philippine Islands, and amounted to $377.85.

Five new parishes have organized branches of the Auxiliary and have appointed delegates, viz.: the Pro-Cathedral Mission, Old Trinity, St. Thomas' Chapel, Church of the Holy Faith, and St. John the Evangelist's.

There are still too many parishes not identified with this good work. May we not look to the clergy of such parishes for their coöperation? We invite their attendance at the monthly meetings of the Standing Committees, as well as that of the women of their parishes, that they may see how the meetings are conducted and what is being accomplished for missions.

The Executive meetings have been held at the See House, 29 Lafayette Place, and all monthly meetings of Standing Committees at the Parish House of Calvary Church. While the Auxiliary appreciates the courtesy of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Rector of Calvary Church, many of the officers feel that the time has come when we should have a place where all business pertaining to the New York Branch could be transacted, and which would be large enough to accommodate the afternoon sessions of the annual, or Bishop's meeting. The room in the Parish House of St. James, seating 800, was not sufficient last December. One plan, presented to the Board of Missions at the suggestion of an officer of the Auxiliary, was not deemed feasible, but it is hoped some successful plan will be evolved this year. The growth of the Auxiliary demands more convenient accommodations.

There has been a decrease in the Good Friday offerings for work among the colored people of the South. The decrease is partly attributable to the increased number of parishes holding the three hours' service. Is there not a remedy for this by making special arrangements to have mite chests placed conspicuously in the vestibules, labelled with the object of the offering on that day? This branch of our work is most important and should receive the generous support of the Church. Mrs. Delafield gave much time and effort to raising money, and no one has taken her place.

The Niobrara League has had a generous response to its appeal for food for the Indians under Bishop Hare, made necessary by the withdrawal of the supplies furnished by the Government.

The special work of the Foreign Committee was to raise money for Cape Mount, Africa, and notwithstanding the resignation of its valued Chairman, Miss Cornelia Jay, $1,859.77 have been raised for this purpose.

The united offering for 1904 is to be devoted to the support of women workers and their work, and up to September 1st, $710.26 have been received for this offering.

The Diocesan Treasurer for the united offering reports a large number of new parish treasurers and a manifest interest in the object. One parish, through the energy of its Treasurer, has given more money from November to May than had been given during the three previous years.

The Church Periodical Club, while not in the strictest sense a part of the Auxiliary, is so closely allied with it, and is so far-reaching in its missionary influence, that it deserves to be brought before the Clergy of the Diocese, and its claims upon every Churchman and Churchwoman who has books and periodicals should be urged. It is only necessary to read some of the appeals for literature, or some of the letters expressing the gratitude of the beneficiaries, to realize what this club has within its power, if given the necessary means.

We record with sorrow three irreparable losses to the Auxiliary during the past year. That of the Honorary Secretary, Mrs. A. T. Twing; Mrs. Francis Delafield, the Vice-President of the Executive Board, also the Vice-Chairman of the Domestic Committee, and of the St. Augustine League; and Mrs. Angelica Church Hart, the late Chairman of the Junior Department. Rare women, all of them, who have left the impress of their characters upon this Auxiliary, and their consecrated lives teach us what women can do for the cause of missions.

The great meetings held in San Francisco gave an impetus to missionary work, and the result in the Diocese of New York has been gratifying. We hope for further inspiration from the Missionary Council to be held in Philadelphia, in October, and from the Advent Missionary Conference to be held in New York. This Auxiliary branch has been given a work to do then, viz.: the arrangement and control of a missionary exhibit. By God's help the New York Branch will endeavor to spread the knowledge of Christ and His Kingdom by sending help and comfort to those who know Him not.

MARY E. WATSON,
President.

The Rev. Dr. Canedy presented the following report:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In the past year at the General Theological Seminary one event takes precedence over all others. The Very Reverend Eugene Augustus Hoffman, D.D., LL.D., since 1879 the really great Dean of this institution, has departed this life, and now rests from his labors.

It is unnecessary in this place, where he has been so conspicuous a figure for so many years, to emphasize the tremendous loss to the Diocese and Church at large, as well as to the General Theological Seminary, which Dean Hoffman's death entails, nor would it be fitting that this committee should take to itself the office of others, and set forth in this report, as we are tempted to do, the munificent generosity and whole-hearted and self-sacrificing devotion to the Seminary, as to the other interests of the Church, which characterized the whole life of the late Dean.

We cannot, however, turn our minds entirely from that magnificent material equipment, of which one can truly say to the visitor to Chelsea Square, "Si quæris monumentum, circumspice," nor can we ignore the unique and lasting influence which his strong and striking personality had on the lives and characters of those who were privileged to come into contact with him; and yet the duty of this committee, we take it, is rather to consider the present and future of the Seminary, and the possible effects that this great loss may have on the Seminary, and the obligations of the Diocese towards it.

In the first place, it ought to be recognized by the Diocese and by the individuals who make up the Diocese, that, though the master-builder has laid wide and deep foundations at the Seminary, yet his work was hardly finished, and others must, for the honor of the Church, which he held so dear, complete the structure which he has begun. To Dean Hoffman it was granted in his lifetime to see the completion of the greater part of the dignified pile of buildings which will form the material abode of the life of the Seminary, and to witness a large increase in the endowment funds for the various departments. However, there is much still needed to increase the extent and efficiency of the Seminary's work and to make it what the General Theological Seminary of this Church ought to be. With the advent of a new Dean, many needs, hitherto concealed, will reveal themselves and will have to be met. This is not a time for parsimony and close calculation. Generous sums ought to be given and spent within the next few years, and we of this Convention must recognize the fact that on our shoulders falls a great part of the responsibility which this need implies. If the Seminary is to do the work of which it gives the promise, Churchmen must do for it the great and generous things that are being done for technical schools in other departments of life.

Your committee would remind the Convention of the great influence and, consequently, the great responsibility which this Diocese will have in the election of a successor to Dean Hoffman, and the necessity for prayerful and careful approach to the decision of this important problem.

During the past year two new professors have been added to the faculty: the Rev. Charles Harris Hayes, M.A., has been elected to the professorship of the Evidences of Natural and Revealed Religion, and the Rev. Herbert M. Denslow to the professorship of Pastoral Theology. The committee record with deep regret the retirement, by reason of ill-health, of the Rev. Dr. Cady from the Chair of Evidences, which he has filled with such conspicuous ability. They are glad to note, however, that Dr. Cady still retains his office as Sub-Dean, and is administering the affairs of the Seminary during the vacancy in the Deanship.

The Rev. Dr. Parks presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON A BOOK OF HOMILIES.

The committee to whom was referred the question of a Book of Homilies for use in the churches of the Diocese, respectfully report that they have considered the matter referred to them, and deem the preparation of such a book at this time inexpedient, and ask to be discharged.

J. LEWIS PARKS.
G. M. CHRISTIAN.

On motion the committee was discharged.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to forward a copy of this resolution to Miss Rhinelander.

The Chair appointed the following delegates to the Missionary Council:

Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D.,

Mr. E. M. Camp.

The Rev. Dr. Harris presented the following report:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE.

In accordance with the instructions given at the last Convention, the Standing Committee took action to obtain the repeal of the amendment to the Act of Incorporation—adopted in 1901—whose purpose was to permit the sale or mortgage of Church property, with the exception of the parish church and rectory, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese.

For this purpose your Committee obtained from the five Bishops in the State of New York an expression of their opposition to this amendment and formal action from the five Standing Committees to the same effect. Fortified with these your Committee applied to the Legislature and obtained from it a repeal of the amendment, so that the law is now restored to the shape it had in 1900—and the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese must be obtained before any real estate held by any parish can be either sold or mortgaged.

Mr. John P. Faure presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention places on record its appreciation of the value of the report of the Sunday-school Commission presented to this body at its yesterday's session.

Mr. D. C. Calvin presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the journal of this Convention be printed and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower moved that the Sunday-school Commission and the Committee on Arrangements for Convention be reappointed, which was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Harris, it was Resolved, That, after the approval of the minutes and the concluding prayers, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The minutes were read by the Secretary and approved.

Concluding prayers having been said by the Rev. Thos. H. Sill, the Convention adjourned, with the benediction of the Bishop.

HENRY C. POTTER,
Bishop of New York.

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Secretary of Convention.

There are two matters to which it is proper that I should invite the attention of the Convention :

The first relates to the action taken by the General Convention in October, 1901, in San Francisco, by means of which, sitting as a Board of Missions, the Convention adopted, as a method for providing the annual revenue for the Missionary Work of the Church, the principle and mechanism of Apportionment. With this method, I need hardly say here, I have always been in cordial sympathy ; and its adoption by the Church in General Convention was action which I think all Church people might well have hailed with delight. The obligations assumed for the Church by the Board of Missions are definite obligations, and stand for an explicit and precise indebtedness. If they did not, no missionary, whether bishop, priest, deacon or lay worker, would be warranted in going to a domestic or foreign field, and entering upon Missionary work. And as such precise and explicit indebtedness it ought not, for its discharge, to be left to the impulse of individual Rectors, or to the more or less uncertain effects of Episcopal or other oratory. Curiously enough, however, that has been our system, or rather want of system, for over sixty years ; and the Church, therefore, never did a wiser or more timely thing than when she separated herself from it, by the action to which I have referred. That action required, however, the ratification of the Diocesan Conventions, and so, when I was asked by the authorities of our Board of Missions, to superimpose it upon the Diocese of New York, I replied at once that I did not think it within my power to do more than commend it to the Diocese, and to ask, so soon as opportunity should offer, for the proper conventional action in the case. The former I did by a letter addressed individually to each of the Reverend Clergy, a copy of which is appended to this address,* and the latter I desire to do now. It is proper, I think, that a resolution or resolutions should be formally adopted by this body, expressing its approval of the action of the General Convention, and, so far as it can, commending the system of apportionment to the parishes in this Diocese. So far as it can, I say, because, already, complaints and criticisms have been addressed to me with regard, in particular cases, to the equity of the apportionments, and these apportionments, if finally approved, should, first, be passed upon by a committee of this body. Its suggestion, and the resolutions which it shall submit may wisely originate, I think, with the Convention.

Another matter was introduced into the last General Convention; or rather, to be more precise, into the House of Bishops of that body, concerning which no action was had, but concerning which it is proper that I should speak. I refer to a resolution introduced, I think, by the Bishop of Duluth, providing, in accordance with the analogy of the usage of the Army and Navy, and of some Civil Courts, for the retirement of a bishop at a fixed age. The House of Bishops, I confess to my regret, did not act favorably upon this proposition, and nothing came of it; which seems the more unfortunate, because, as at present existing, neither the Church's Constitution, nor her Canon law makes any adequate provision, in the case of superannuated Bishops, for the relief of a Diocese. The Bishop of a Diocese may ask for a coadjutor, but the Diocese may not take the initiative in such a matter, however great may be the sense of its need, without the previous action of the Bishop; and the Bishop may prefer, for reasons which I need not rehearse, to meet a situation whose exigencies are obvious to all men by expedients which may indeed seem to meet them, but which have neither diocesan sanction nor express the diocesan mind.

A few years ago, in the Federate Council, a body composed of deputies from the five Dioceses included within the bounds of this State, I proposed a plan which I think met our requirements in this commonwealth, and which would, if it had been adopted, have brought relief to each of the Bishops, and increased Episcopal service to the whole State. This plan, to summarize it in a very few words, involved the creation of two new Dioceses and the redistribution among the seven of the whole territory of the State. But this plan was not approved in the Federate Council; and, since then, the death of Bishops Coxe and Littlejohn, and the election of a Coadjutor to Bishop Huntington have changed the whole situation. In our own case division seems to be rendered impossible by the fact that we have no See city strong enough to carry a new Diocese; and a painful and rather humiliating experience has taught us that were it created its perhaps not unnatural expectations that the mother Diocese would assume any considerable part of its Missionary burdens would be liable to disappointment.

Under these circumstances it seems proper that I should remind myself and you that, at the expiration of another year, I shall have been practically the Bishop of this Diocese for twenty years. I was consecrated in October, 1883; and though the Bishop of this Diocese was at that time living, he made, almost immediately after my consecration, an entire transfer and assignment of the Episcopal duties and powers, which I have executed and discharged from that day to this. It is competent to me, as I am aware, and as, for some ten or fifteen years previous to my consecration was the practise of my predecessor, for the Ordinary to seek and employ such assistance from other Bishops as he may see fit. There are, indeed, ends of real and wide value to be served by such a custom, which, especially so far as it employs bishops having a missionary relation to remote fields in the Church, brings them into personal and sometimes mutually stimulating contact with our own. But it ought not, in my judgment, to be employed as a part of a permanent system; for, plainly, it is the function and the right of a Diocese to choose its Coadjutor Bishop or Bishops, and not of a Bishop to evade or obstruct that choice. In this light I desire now to bring this matter to your attention, to express my cordial readiness to coöperate with you in any action that you may desire or decide to take, and at once upon his election to surrender one-fourth or one-third or one-half (I should prefer the latter) of the compensation which I now receive as Bishop of this Diocese to its Coadjutor. I shall then hope to arrange with my Coadjutor such a division of our common tasks as should best provide for their efficient discharge.

Commending these matters to your prayerful consideration, I would invoke for you, Brethren beloved in the Lord, the all-sufficient and unerring guidance of the Holy Ghost!

DIOCESAN HOUSE, LAFAYETTE PLACE,
NEW YORK,
March 18, 1902.

Reverend and Dear Brother: The list that goes with this will explain itself. I have not felt authorized to issue it without the coördinate action of the Diocesan Convention, but I commend it and its apportionments to your favorable consideration; and earnestly trust that the Church in the Diocese of New York will be able to do in this matter what is asked of it.

Very faithfully yours,

H. C. POTTER.

The number of adults who attended the church at Meads Mt. was larger than usual, owing to the fact that there were more summer boarders of the Episcopal Church. The number of children was less than usual. The interest in the services was evident in bringing some from a distance to the services. Since the last report a beautiful altar has been presented to the church as a memorial of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Douglas, by Mrs. Merritt of New York.

Contributions to Missions have been impossible as the work is clearly that, having really no parochial organization, with services only during the summer months. Has no vestry—simply trustees in charge.

While the actual number of communicants reported is less than that of last year, this does not mean a loss. The number of communicants has in reality increased, but the names of many who have long left the parish, but which had been left on the roll, are now taken off. The number now reported represents the true strength of the parish. A beautiful new Church is to be opened for Divine worship on June 8th. A new rectory is being built. During the past year about $15,000 has been given for building and furnishing, including a new pipe organ, but as the rectory will not be finished, nor the Church consecrated, until the fall, we are not yet in a position to include these finances officially in this report.

Last year's report omitted some $10,000 raised for the philanthropic work of the parish. The annual report of this parish is made, to follow our fiscal year, from November to November, and this report covers the year ending November 1, 1901.

In closing a thirty-three years' ministry in All Souls' Parish, a record is here made of the worship and work as carried on of late years. At the Sunday morning service, a long course of teaching sermons, generally running through the winter; an afternoon service, with children's vested choir, fairly well attended; a free evening service, with full choir and sermon by the assistant minister, an excellent attendance, almost wholly drawn from the east side tenements, constituting a regular congregation worshipping in the parish church; Holy Communion on the first and third Sundays of the month; services on Saints' Days, and daily through Lent; Confirmation Classes as usual; a daily Free Kindergarten (75 children) in the Parish House, 187 East 64th Street, the first (or second) free kindergarten in the city; a Sunday-school (480 children), chiefly from the far east side families; a Kindergarten Sunday-school (58 infants), under a trained Kindergarten; an Industrial School (181 children); two Girls' Clubs, a senior and a junior (100 girls); two Boys' Clubs, a senior and a junior (115 boys); a Young Men's Club (90 members); a Women's Club (these clubs having a number of classes, e.g., New York City history, drawing, elocution, etc.); a branch of the Penny Provident Society (792 depositors); a Summer Home—village on Roalyn Harbor of ten acres, with ten buildings (853 beneficiaries, nearly all for two weeks' stay): this work carried on by a staff of one Assistant Minister, to whose energy and devotion the efficiency of our work is largely due, one Lay Worker, one Parish Visitor, and three Kindergartners—the whole work looking on to the possibility of making a pew-renting church, in a so-called "fashionable" locality, a spiritual home for "all sorts and conditions of men."

Our list of communicants represents, of course, large numbers who have removed without taking letters of transfer, and who have otherwise ceased to maintain a living connection with the parish; but I know of no satisfactory way to correct this common error.

The East Side Chapel, a very important and successful work, is supported by the Men's Auxiliary of the parish. It is housed on the plaza at the Third avenue termination of the elevated road. Members of St. Andrew's Brotherhood conduct the services and the Sunday-school. A large parish meets here each week and receives instruction from Rev. Mr. Henkell. With a gift of $2,000 each year for three years a large and self-supporting parish could easily be established here in this given time.

The debt of the parish is being gradually lessened by the dollar unit system, while by this method none of the parish work suffers in any way. This plan is here commended to other parishes similarly conditioned. Recognition is here publicly and gratefully made of the valuable services of the Rev. Dr. Kettell, gratuitously rendered.

In the absence of any canon or ruling on the subject, and to insure as reasonably accurate a report of communicants as is possible, the rector has erased from this parish list all names of persons who have not been known to receive their Sacrament for the last five years, and of whom nothing whatever is known. Removals in this community are so frequent, and the canon requiring that letters dimissory be taken by those removing so absolutely ignored, this action is necessary to insure anything like an accurate report. Ever so many names are still carried that ought not to be on the list, while hundreds regularly commune whose names are unknown to us.

The great difference apparent in the "Parochial Statistics" is due somewhat to a different system of counting, I only hold such names on the roll as I know attend services regularly, or signify a desire to have their names kept on the roll. Thus I know of one hundred and fifty baptized persons, and forty-seven families at present connected with the Mission, I have placed the difference under "Loss Otherwise" in order to balance the number last reported, with the present number of Communicants.

The "Financial Exhibit" is in accord with the books of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, as all moneys pass through his hands and are recorded on his books. Money not thus recorded has not as yet been used for the benefit of the Parish, but will appear on next year's report. I feel that this statement is necessary in justice to the work here, and in order to make some explanation of the difference between the report of last year and this report.

There has been a Recess Chancel built to the Church, and a new roof put on the Parish Hall, and paid for, during the past year.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge :

THE REV. STURGES ALLEN.

" During the past year I have been residing at Holy Cross House, Westminster, Md. I have celebrated the Holy Eucharist about 300 times and have said Morning and Evening Prayer daily, with the exception of about three weeks, when illness prevented. I have given a few conferences and addresses."

THE REV. C. W. E. BODY, D.D., D.C.L.,

" Began respectfully to report that he has, during the past Convention year, been occupied with the constant duties of his chair as Professor of Old Testament Literature and Interpretation in the General Theological Seminary, and has further delivered a number of sermons and addresses in this and other dioceses. He has also been for some time engaged, in conjunction with the Bishop of Vermont, in editorial duties in connection with the passing of the new Marginal Reading Bible through the press."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

" Respectfully reports: That during the last twelve months he has officiated as he has had opportunity."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

" Respectfully reports to the Bishop: That during the past Conventional year his clerical work, with the exception of preaching two sermons and celebrating the Holy Communion six times in St. Mark's Church, New Canaan, Ct., has been confined to the discharge of his duties as a Professor in the General Theological Seminary, and, since the death of the Very Rev. E. A. Hoffman, D.D., LL.D., as Acting Dean of the same Institution."

THE REV. FRANCIS CHASE

" Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York: That during the last year he has continued to reside in Scarsdale, and to assist in the services according to his ability."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

" Respectfully reports: That during the Conventional year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has officiated as often as he has been able, and that in other ways he has continually sought to advance the interests of Religion and the Church. He regrets that his canonical report last year was sent to the Diocesan Secretary too late for insertion in the Report."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report: That during the past year I have occasionally assisted in the services of the Church in different places. During the past summer I officiated and preached in Stony Creek, Conn. I have baptized one infant."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMARSKÖLD.

"I beg leave to report: That during the year ending September 1, 1902, I have been engaged in missionary work among the Swedish people of this country. During the same period I have conducted 203 services, taken part in 40, preached 163 sermons, delivered 48 addresses, administered Holy Communion 48 times, baptized 88 children, solemnized 12 marriages, and officiated at 11 funerals."

THE REV. A. N. HENSHAW, PH.D.

"During the past year I have officiated regularly on Sundays at Plattsburg, assisting the rector of the parish, and at other places in the Diocese of Albany."

THE REV. WILLIAM HUCKEL

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year he has been engaged in the public services of the Church."

THE REV. J. O. S. HUNTINGTON.

"During the past year I have resided in Westminster, Md., but have often been absent from home, conducting missions and retreats, and giving conferences in various parts of the country. I have celebrated the Holy Eucharist about 320 times, and have said Morning and Evening Prayer daily."

THE REV. T. A. HYLAND.

"During the greater part of the past year I have been unable to perform any ministerial duty. My health still continues poor, and it is impossible to say when I will be able again to take part in the services of the Church."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I have to report that owing to domestic affliction and personal failure of eyesight I have been disabled from clerical duty during the last Conventional year."

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"I would report that during the past year I have continued to serve as Acting Chaplain of the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples, performing the duties according to my ability. My health continues good, save for a painful rheumatism in my right hand."

THE REV. D. BRAINARD RAY.

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE

"Begs to report: That during the past year he has been steadily occupied with his duties at the Church Mission House in the city of New York."

THE REV. THOMAS RICHEY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has been regularly engaged during the past year in the discharge of his duties as Professor of Ecclesiastical History in the General Theological Seminary. In addition to the services rendered in the saying of the daily offices and the celebration of the Holy Communion in the Seminary Chapel, he has aided the Rector of St. Clement's Church in preaching and celebrating when called upon during the winter."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Most respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been seriously ill, but has been restored to health, and at eighty-two is seemingly as strong as when he reached three score and ten years. He has served in the ministry for fifty-six years."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports: That, owing to continued physical disability, during the past Conventional year he has taken no part in the public services of the Church except as a worshipper. He has also been obliged because of chronic weakness added to local physical obstacles, not infrequently to absent himself, with regret, from public worship."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has attended as usual, since the date of his last report, to the duties of his Professorship in the General Theological Seminary, and has exercised his ministry as occasion required, having officiated in celebrating Holy Eucharist 19 times, assisting at celebrations 8 times, reading Morning or Evening Prayer 26 times, preaching 8 times, assisting at service 27 times, and solemnizing Holy Matrimony twice."

In addition to the above, I assisted one gentleman in his preparation for Holy Orders."

THE REV. AUG. ULLMANN, D.D.,

"Begg leave to report: That besides his duties as Rector of Trinity School he has conducted for the greater part of the year a German service at the Pro-Cathedral in Stanton Street. Besides this he has helped a number of his brethren by taking their services and preaching for them."

THE REV. JOHN W. H. WHEBEL

"Respectfully reports: That owing to ill health he has not been able to officiate, but when able to attend church has been a worshipper in the pew."

THE REV. J. HENRY WILSON

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1884 ;
~~—~~October 4, 1889 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; September 26, 1889 ; and September 14, 1902.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year, at such place as the Bishop shall appoint. It shall be held on the last Wednesday in September, unless the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee shall appoint another date. In case of the inability of the Bishop to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall appoint the time and place of holding the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 1. In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee, by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

SEC. 2. In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new Parish.

SEC. 3. "Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which such work is situated, may be prosecuted temporarily at such point or points as may be from time to time designated by them, after consultation with the Rectors of the three nearest Parishes; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected, unless the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have been obtained in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon."

corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate ; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so

It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Orchildren of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

" 1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

" 2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

" 3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

" 4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence ; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively ; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President:

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, shall not be read in open Convention, unless so ordered by the Convention.

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.
- (10) Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federal Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 11. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 12. Reports of Special Committees.
- 13. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

tute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence ; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively ; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention ; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

and provide church services; the property being occupied and held in connection with Christ Church at Rye.

Since the last report, additional property has been received, to be held in trust for this parish, and new buildings, including a rectory, are being erected.

Church of the Holy Apostles' Endowment Fund. This fund was received in 1901, with instructions to hold the same until with the accumulations it amounted to $20,000, after which the income of the fund is to be paid to the Treasurer of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be expended by him for the general running expenses of said church. Owing to litigation about the will of Mrs. Tousey, the payment of this income has been suspended.

 GEORGE R. SCHIEFFELIN, } Auditing Committee.

NEW YORK, September 28, 1903.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and Mr. George R. Schieffelin were elected Trustees for the ensuing four years.

The Rev. R. B. Kimber presented and read the following report:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY, 1903.

During the past summer the City Mission Society has suffered a serious loss in the deaths of Mr. Alfred M. Hoyt and the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, D.D.

Mr. Hoyt had been connected with the Society for thirty years, having been elected a member of the Board of Managers in 1873, and, until prevented by failing health, took an earnest and active interest in its work. From his election to 1899 he was a member of the Committee of Direction (now the Executive Committee).

The Rev. Dr. Warren became a member of the Board in October, 1893, and would have completed his ten years of service had he lived until this time. His interest in the affairs of the Society was unflagging, and his willing help was unsparingly given both as a member of the Board of Managers and of the Committee on the Italian Mission.

The policy of the past year has been to increase the efficiency of the work already undertaken by the Society, and of the workers engaged in it, rather than the opening of new fields of labor. To a great extent this has been accomplished. The new men taken upon the staff have been chosen for their fitness for the special places to which they have been assigned, as well as for their spirit, like that of the Master, that has led them to endure hardness, laboring in season and out of season for the spread of the gospel among those who need it most.

The Treasurer's books show that the sources of the Society's income have been as follows:

Income applicable to general expenses.....	$45,570 65
Fresh Air Fund.....	4,811 39
Festival Fund.....	2,928 90
Special Objects.....	2,656 51
Mission News subscriptions, etc.....	748 80

The continued stormy weather upon the Sundays of last winter resulted in the reduction of the offerings from the parishes by several thousand dollars. Forty-three parishes contributed during the year.

The Superintendent again appeals to the clergy to give their people the privilege and opportunity of making an offering for this work. He is always ready to make addresses upon the work before the congregations on such days as may be appointed.

The Missionary Staff during the past twelvemonth has numbered twenty-five clergymen, five deaconesses and four lay-readers. Of the clergy, six have rendered temporary service.

The following figures will give an idea of the extent of the work:

Number of Places where Services are Held.....	35

It is the custom for the Staff to meet monthly in St. Barnabas' Chapel for a Celebration of the Holy Communion, followed by a Conference, on which occasions they have been addressed by the Bishop and several of the rectors of the city.

St. Ambrose's Chapel was closed at Easter and the property sold soon afterwards. The congregation had almost entirely left the neighborhood, having been replaced by a colony of Italians adhering to the Church of Rome. Work was attempted among them, but it was unsuccessful.

In December the Bishop asked the Society to undertake the support and oversight of the chapel known as the Pro-Cathedral in Stanton Street. The board accepted the charge, and since that time the work there has been carried on under the direction of the Society. It is interesting to note that in 1833, shortly after the organization of the City Mission, it established a chapel to minister to the people living between Grand and Houston Streets, from the river to the river. Through many changes, and after many years, out of this work came the Pro-Cathedral, and now when seventy years have elapsed the first chapel of the Society comes again under its care.

At San Salvatore the Italian work continues to grow. The new building has been set apart by the Bishop, and through the generosity of a member of the parish, the parish house has been carried up another story. The establishment of a kindergarten has increased the scope of the week-day work, and gathered in many of the little ones whose only school was that of the street. The election of Dr. Nelson to be Archdeacon has left the vicarate of the chapel vacant. It is being temporarily supplied by another member of the staff.

The Chapel of the Messiah, the largest of our chapels, starts the new year with an increased staff. The Vicar will be assisted by two deaconesses and a minster who has proved himself valuable in dealing with boys and meeting their peculiar needs. A kindergarten will be opened this fall, and two kindergartners will share in the parish work. Year by year the need of a parish building asserts itself. The basement of the chapel is the only available place for the use of the Sunday School, clubs, guilds and kindergarten. The chapel as the gift of two Churchwomen; will not some one else complete the plan by the gift of the parish house? The neighborhood is densely populated, and the average of intelligence is higher than would be expected.

St. Barnabas' and God's Providence Houses pursue their usual routine in caring for homeless women, and nursing and training the children of working mothers.

During the year the Society and the City Departments of Charities and Corrections have come into closer relationship. Many courtesies have been shown us by the Commissioners, and larger opportunities for work have been offered and accepted.

The brightest spot on Blackwell's Island is the Chapel of the Good Shepherd at the almshouse. The daily services have a goodly congregation, and the Chaplain and his assistant have brought light and gladness into the lives of those whose infirmity, added to their poverty, has kept them within the wards.

The prisoners have been visited, and services held in prison and penitentiary. The work is now confined to the spiritual ministrations, all applications for legal or other aid being referred to the established bureaus of relief. Only in the cases of dependent families or of discharged prisoners has the society found it wise to lend a helping hand.

The hospital chaplains endeavor to see every Protestant within the institutions daily. These visits are eagerly looked forward to by many as the only bright spots in the days of suffering and dull routine. The number of baptisms and administrations of the Holy Communion tells of the souls led to put on Christ and to grow closer to Him through the means that He has ordained.

Our great hospitals are little worlds. What stories of life could be unfolded, what tragedies, could the patients be persuaded to tell of the past. They do tell the Chaplain, sure of his sympathy, and knowing that his lips are sealed; and the outcome of his knowing is the righting of old wrongs, the reuniting of husbands and wives long estranged, and the returning of the prodigals to the father's house.

For some years the young boy full of mischief and spirits, yet needing for a season to get away from the environment and atmosphere of the tenement life, has been the unsolvable problem. We could not place boys over six years in our summer homes. No other home would take them in.

When the Fresh Air work was opened this spring, it was decided that we would care for such boys in a camp established for the purpose. On the shore of Long Island Sound, near New Haven, we brought, in parties of fifty, nearly two hundred and fifty boys during the season to Camp Bleecker. Bathing, boating, and fishing under the oversight of some manly young men, coupled with the life in tents, made this part of the Fresh Air work deservedly popular. Nearby were the cottages for the Fresh Air girls under the supervision of the Deaconess in charge of St. Barnabas' and her assistants.

At Tenafly, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning have extended the courtesy of the Rethmore Home to the Society for the eleventh year, meeting all the expense of maintenance.

If the contributors to our Fresh Air Fund could watch but one party during their stay at the house, they would go forth as missionaries of the work. To see the pale cheek take on its coat of tan, the drooping head become erect, the dull eyes brighten as the wholesome food and good air tone up the system, is well worth the trouble of the journey to visit the Fresh Air Homes and Camp.

In his last report the Superintendent suggested the splendid opportunity the work of the Society gave to graduates of Seminary or Deaconess School to receive a practical pastoral training under wise supervision before entering upon their parish work.

This plan is now being carried out at present in a small way, until its difficulties, if any, may be seen and met. Students from the General Seminary and from St. Faith's are working with us, and four graduates have been added to the staff.

It would be a benefit to the Church in years to come if some one would provide for, annually or by endowment, the modest salaries of a number of such graduates. The Society can only employ those it needs to do its work, but it could train many others if their support was assured.

Brethren, we are your representatives in the field of City Missions. We are set to do a work that has its own peculiar and important place in the complete life of the Church in the Diocese. Help us to carry it on. Urge your people to support it. It is the work that our Lord Himself did when He was upon the earth.

"Lord, when saw we Thee a hungered, and fed Thee? or thirsty, and gave Thee drink? When saw we Thee a stranger, and took Thee in? or naked, and clothed Thee? Or when saw we Thee sick, or in prison, and came unto Thee? . . . Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,

Superintendent.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the city and diocese to give to that work their unremitting and generous support.

The Rev. A. R. Mansfield presented and read the following report:

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

In making this, our yearly report, we, the Board of Managers, present for the careful consideration of the friends of the Mission the very satisfactory summary of work at our chapels and reading-rooms, showing an attendance of over twenty thousand at the services and over two hundred and fifteen thousand visits to the reading-rooms, while six thousand visits have been made to ships, boats and boarding houses; and we believe that an examination in detail of the reports of the Chaplains, Superintendents, committees and others closely connected with the work, will make it quite evident that we have wisely expended the funds at our disposal.

It is an interesting fact that the amount of money deposited by and sent home for seamen has increased from $15,000 last year to $41,000 the current year, as appears in the report of the Special Policeman.

We are glad to note that President Roosevelt has effectively intervened in urging activity on the part of Revenue Officers in the suppression of boarding vessels in the harbor by runners, and that the State Board for licensing sailor boarding houses is keeping watch over its seventy-six licensed boarding houses with a view to preventing abuses.

We have received a staunch steam vessel, which was greatly needed by the Society, for work among the ships in the harbor and bay.

The Society's experimental work at a new post, No. 1 State Street, facing the Battery, and in the same building with the shipping office of the British Consulate General, where 118,000 seamen were shipped or discharged last year, has proved most satisfactory. Its rooms have been visited by an average of more than 100 seamen daily, and many scores of these men have been shipped as they desired, without cost or delay, thus realizing in some degree the Society's desire for a free shipping bureau and the abolition of the "blood money" tax which has heretofore been taken from seamen by so-called "Crimps" at the rate of at least $500,000 per annum. The expense of this reading-room and of offices for Special Policeman and Superintendent, amounting to $2,000 per annum, seems more than justified, and we hope that contributions to cover it may be promptly made by any who sympathize with this work of relief.

We thankfully recognize the cordial coöperation of the Seamen's Benefit Society, a society of ladies recently organized, the annual statement of whose secretary is incorporated in this report.

It has been very truthfully said that of no class of men is the city so oblivious as of seamen; and yet there are now signs, both in the public prints and in the utterances of those prominent in position, that a livelier interest is being aroused. Is the Episcopal Church willing to be behind in this awakening? Can she afford to have our work cut down and crippled for lack of funds?

Our Treasurer's report shows that the total cost of the work for the year has been $21,646, while the receipts have been only $17,977, leaving a deficit of $3,669.

If we are to keep alive and extend our work as we should, we must have more money wherewith to do it.

Apparently there is dawning upon us a day richer in opportunity than any before. Shall we or shall we not let it pass unimproved? Friends of the seaman who have given time, money and self for him, you will never regret it; surely not when you too shall be "crossing the bar."

The Rev. Dr. Parks presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ELECTION OF A COADJUTOR.

The Committee to whom was referred that part of the Bishop's address referring to a Bishop Coadjutor, would report the following mode of procedure:

That the report of the Committee be made the special order for 2.30 P.M.; that, if the resolutions appended to such report be adopted, the Convention shall proceed to an election for a Bishop Coadjutor at 11 A.M. to-morrow.

That the report of the Committee on Division of the Diocese be made a special order as soon as all action under the report of the Committee on Bishop Coadjutor be concluded.

The report of the Committee with the recommendations was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Hopson presented and read the following report:

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The Trustees of St. Stephen's College beg to present to the Convention of the Diocese of New York their annual report.

At the Commencement in June the Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, Ph.D., resigned the Wardenship of the College, in order to accept his election to the Rectorship of Trinity School, New York. During his four years of service Dr. Cole has labored faithfully to maintain and improve the College plant, its buildings, grounds, and equipments; to enlarge its curriculum and adapt it to modern methods, and to elevate the spiritual tone of its students. His attractive personality and the generous hospitality of himself and his family will be pleasantly remembered by those who were privileged to enjoy them. Our best wishes for his success accompany him to his new field of labor.

The Rev. Dr. Hopson was appointed Acting Warden until such time as a new Warden might be chosen.

Professor Yardley having resigned the Chair of English and History to accept the position of Assistant Professor of English in Trinity College, Mr. Edwin C. Upton was selected to take his place. Mr. Upton is a graduate of the University of Maine, where he taught for three years. He subsequently studied for a year in the Harvard Graduate School, and another year in the Columbia Graduate School, where he received the degree of M.A. For a year and a half he has been teaching in Columbia University, as assistant to Professor Carpenter in the department of English.

The temporary appointment of Professor Pfeiffer having expired, Mr. Robert G. Robb was chosen to fill the Chair of Mathematics and Physics. Mr. Robb is a Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts of the University of Virginia, and has had several years of experience in the work of instruction.

We have ten new students this year. Several others applied, but had not made sufficient preparation to enable them to be admitted to the Freshman Class. The entire number is the same that it was last year. They are, as a rule, young men of good ability, earnest purpose, and eager desire to improve the opportunities afforded them.

GEO. B. HOPSON,
Acting Warden.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 2.30 P.M.

The Convention reassembled at 2.30 P.M.

The Bishop addressed the Convention, calling attention to the lack of a sufficient Canon to provide for cases of parishes requiring relief because of the disability or mental derangement of Rectors, which should be made to appear to the Bishop to be permanent in character, and asked that a proper Canon should be presented for such cases.

On motion of Mr. Stetson, delegate from the Church of the Incarnation, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the matter now presented by the Bishop be, and hereby the same is, referred to the Committee on Canons, with instructions to report a Canon upon the subject, for consideration to-morrow.

The Rev. Dr. Parks presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON A BISHOP COADJUTOR.

The Committee appointed at the meeting of the Diocesan Convention held September 25, 1902, to act upon the matter of a Bishop Coadjutor, present the following report:

Your Committee is of the opinion that it is desirable to proceed to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for this Diocese, and as it has been found inexpedient to hold a special Convention for the purpose of such election, it is respectfully recommended that the election proceed at this Convention.

At a meeting held on the 30th day of September, 1903, a resolution was adopted instructing the Chairman to present the following preamble and resolution to the Convention:

Whereas, The Right Reverend the Bishop of New York, in addressing this Convention September last, pointed out that with the year 1903 he would complete an Episcopate of twenty years, and indicated methods by which the Diocese might secure to itself such more adequate Episcopal services as he might not himself hereafter be able to furnish; and

Whereas, The Right Reverend the Diocesan, in his Convention address of this day, while carefully refraining from any official expression of a preference as to the mode by which the present Diocese of New York should secure more or more efficient Episcopal services, does yet declare, "If the Diocese adopt as the mode of relief the election of a Coadjutor, I beg to say that I hereby consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New York;" and thereupon proceeds to state the duties he will assign to such Bishop Coadjutor, duly elected and consecrated, in accordance with Title I., Canon 19, Section 5 of the Digest; therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention deems the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New York the necessary provision at this time for more adequate Episcopal services in this Diocese than can, owing to advancing years, be furnished by the Bishop of the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

J. LEWIS PARKS,

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Greer the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved: That the whole subject of the right of persons to seats in this Convention be recommitted to the Committee on Canons with a view to determining the status of such persons in this Convention as are referred to in the third Article of the Constitution, and also for the purpose of making said Article more explicit in its meaning and scope.

The Rev. Dr. Kirkby moved that members of the clerical staff of the Board of Domestic and Foreign Missions, belonging to the Diocese, be granted a seat in this Convention, which was also referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Lea Luquer, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, moved the adoption of the substitute for Canon XIV., reported by same Committee at the last Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Batten the question was laid on the table for the present.

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

In deference to the action of the General Convention regarding the name of the Church, be it

Resolved, That the portion of the Bishop's address calling attention to this subject be referred to a committee of five, with instructions to report upon the same to this Convention.

The Bishop appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin, the Rev. Dr. Batten, the Rev. Dr. Peters, Mr. J. H. Canfield and Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.

As it was found impracticable to have the election of Standing Committee and Deputies to General Convention before Thursday, the Rev. Dr. Parks moved the reconsideration of the resolution fixing the election of a Bishop Coadjutor at 11 A.M. on Thursday, which was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Parks the Convention voted to proceed at once to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor.

On motion of Dr. Parks it was decided that nominations be made simply by name and without debate in accordance with the precedent of the Convention of 1883.

On motion of Dr. Parks the question of the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor was referred to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, with instructions to report to the Convention at their earliest convenience.

On motion of Dr. Parks the Convention voted to proceed to nomination for Bishop Coadjutor after silent prayer.

An interval of silent prayer followed, and then the following nominations were made:

The Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, nominated by the Rev. Dr. Dix and seconded by the Rev. Dr. Huntington.

The Rev. William R. Huntington, D.D., Rector of Grace Church, nominated by the Rev. John M. Chew and seconded by the Rev. J. W. Buckmaster.

On motion of the Secretary the calling of the Roll of Clergy and Parishes was dispensed with.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Westchester the Convention voted to sit as the Board of Missions on Thursday at 3 P.M.

On motion of the Rev. Henry Barker the proposed substitute for Canon XIV. was taken from the table and referred back to the Committee on Canons.

Rev. Dr. Lubeck presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Whereas, A great effort has been made by the Church during the past four years under the Presidency of the Bishop of New York to shepherd and minister to a large body of people, members of the Dramatic Profession, hitherto practically ignored as a class by Christian organizations; and

Whereas, Such effort has resulted in the organization of the Actors' Church Alliance, and the appointment of a thousand chaplains throughout the United States and Canada;

Resolved, That, realizing the importance and value of this work, the Convention pledges its sympathy and interest to the Alliance, with heartiest wishes for its success.

Rev. Mr. Barbour moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention expresses its deep sympathy with the authorities and people of the Parish of the Archangel, whose new church edifice was destroyed this week by fire, and that the various congregations in the Diocese be recommended to assist in the work of rebuilding.

The Secretary presented the report of the Parochial Fund.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that three meetings of the Board have been held during the Conventional year. The property 575 West 145th Street, which was taken under the foreclosure of a mortgage of $30,000, and which represents an investment including the costs of the foreclosure proceedings of $31,286.19, has not been sold. In view of the increasing value of real estate from the transit facilities now in progress, it has not seemed expedient to sacrifice the property by a forced sale.

The property, which was held by this Corporation at Millbrook, N. Y., for the use of Grace Church at Millbrook, has been conveyed to the Church by order of the Supreme Court made on the application of Grace Church and the Rev. J. C. S. Weills, by whom the property had been originally conveyed to this Corporation for the purpose of erecting a Rectory upon it, and another location having been considered more desirable by the authorities of the Parish.

The Trustees have much pleasure in placing on record the fact that every application for assistance from the Board during the past Conventional year has been willingly granted. The fund is guarded by such rules that only the most worthy and deserving may secure assistance; yet the Trustees could use very much more than the income now at their disposal. The Parochial Fund is therefore earnestly commended to those who may be seeking a worthy object for bequest and endowment.

The terms of office of Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. William Pierson Hamilton will expire on October 1, 1903.

Two persons should be elected by the Convention to succeed them.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

On motion of the Secretary the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie and Mr. William P. Hamilton were elected to succeed themselves as Trustees.

The following report was presented:

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary; but, no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending September, 1904.

The Trustees report the purchase by them of $25,000 Erie Railroad Co. 4% General Lien Gold Bonds at 85 and ½% commission for the "Residence Fund," costing $21,281.25, and request the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese having reported the purchase by them, as an investment of a portion of the funds in their hands, of \$25,000 Erie Railroad Co. 4% General Lien Gold Bonds at 85 and $\frac{1}{2}$ % commission, for the "Residence Fund," costing \$21,281.25, such action and purchase by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund are approved.

The Trustees recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of two per cent., upon the salaries paid to the Clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommends to the Convention the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the Fund as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XVI. of the Diocese, from every congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1903-1904 be one per cent., on the amount of the salary of its clergyman.

Resolved, 3. That the Treasurer be authorized to spend $100 for incidental expenses.

AUGUSTUS WIGGIN,
D. PARKER MORGAN,
WM. N. DUNNELL.

On motion, the resolutions, recommended by the committee, were adopted.

The following report was then read:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The past year has been one of peculiar privileges to the New York Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, whose Annual Report is again presented.

Those privileges have been the Missionary Week, with which the year began, and the opportunities for seeing and hearing missionaries from near and distant fields, particularly the women workers from Africa, China, Alaska and the Lemhi Indians. From these missionaries, Bishops, other clergy and women, a fresh impetus has been given to the work of the Auxiliary, shown in larger and increased offerings. The Missionary Exhibit, placed in the hands of the Auxiliary by the Executive Committee of the Conference, attained its object in bringing together many who were heretofore ignorant of Missions, and in practically illustrating the industries of the negroes in the South and in Africa, as well as the industries in our new possessions in Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands. The Conference Committee allowed $700 for the expenses of this Exhibit. The economy of the Chairman, Miss Tomes, enabled the Treasurer, Miss Gilbert, to return nearly one half of this sum to Mr. Pierrepont, who sent her a letter of congratulation. One of the chief addresses at the well-attended Annual or Bishop's meeting, was made by Bishop Brewer of Montana on the Apportionment Plan. That the New York Auxiliary has made an effort to adopt that plan, may be inferred from the increased offerings from all the Standing Committees, for the general work, viz.:

The Domestic Committee said they would try to raise $3,000 for the salary of a Bishop in the Domestic field. It was not all given, but their total cash receipts were $4,203.53 against $2,997.83 of last year; besides a large number of valuable boxes.

The Foreign Committee made a pledge to raise $3,000 for the salaries of four women; $2,810.06 of that sum was given. The total money receipts were $10,873.51, being $1,646 more than last year, besides 7 boxes valued at $258.68.

The Niobrara League worked hard to relieve the burdens of Bishop Hare. Their gifts amounted to $8,120.87, being $915.53 in excess of the previous year, besides many boxes.

The St. Augustine's League, for work among the negroes of the South, while not realizing all they hoped for, from the Good Friday Offerings, still shows a slight increase in receipts, the total being $7,325.88 for the year, exclusive of boxes. This does not include the $5,000 for the Memorial Chapel to the late Mrs. Francis Delafield, at Lawrenceville, Va., for the use of St. Paul's Industrial School, under Archdeacon Russell. The Chairman of the League, Mrs. Cleveland, is the Treasurer of this fund, but a large part of it has been given by Mrs. Delafield's friends not connected with the Auxiliary. In June, $4,500 had been paid in, and numerous interior furnishings have been promised. Ground was broken on St. James' Day, July 25th. The students are doing much of the work on the chapel, and the bricks and lumber are manufactured by them; thus it is a double charity, as it gives employment to the students and increases the income of the school.

The Juniors, an important part of the Auxiliary, have raised $2,173.50 in money, and have sent 65 boxes, valued at $2,027.47.

Mrs. Crosby, the Treasurer of the Executive Board, reports that many of the parishes have contributed to the central expenses, such as printing annual reports, postals, Annual Meetings, etc., a sufficient amount, leaving a balance in the Treasury; also that the offerings at the Annual Meeting were $365.30, besides $30 taken from the alms boxes at the Exhibit.

A helpful Quiet Day was held in the Church of the Heavenly Rest in March; conducted by the Rev. Dr. Lloyd. There was a large attendance throughout the day. Every possible arrangement was made by the Rector and the Auxiliary Branch to make this day a memorable one. The offerings were $255.

The President called a Conference of Parish Presidents at the See House, after Easter. Such meetings would benefit the workers and the work.

The Diocesan Treasurer of the United Offering, Mrs. Soule, besides holding a Conference of the Parish Treasurers, made many visits to city and out-of-town parishes, everywhere receiving the support of the Clergy and the women.

There are now about eighty-seven Parish Treasurers for the United Offering, and a larger amount of money paid in than at the end of the second year before the Convention in 1901. We confidently expect to take a larger sum to Boston than we did to San Francisco (over $13,000) and to accomplish this, we appeal to the Rectors to make it better known.

All Souls' Church, Rev. Dr. McConnell, Rector, organized a branch of the Auxiliary in December, which has done a splendid work, considering that there were no organized societies in that parish.

In May, a new branch was started at Cold Spring-on-Hudson, Rev. E. Floyd-Jones, Rector, which promises to be a good working society.

The Dutchess Archdeaconry has accepted the Constitution, and has sent a representative to the Executive Board. Fourteen of its twenty-nine parishes, however, have belonged to the Auxiliary.

According to the Diocesan Journal, there are over two hundred and forty Churches and Chapels in this Diocese; but one hundred and one were represented in the Auxiliary. We appeal to the Rectors again, to aid us by sending their women to the Annual Meeting, December 2d., and to the monthly meetings at the See House, to hear the missionaries tell of their needs, which are many. The Delegates, of whom there should be at least two from every parish, are very important factors in creating and sustaining interest in Missions; let us have, as such, your best women.

Since the Bishop has removed his office from the See House, it has been accepted by the Auxiliary of the Diocese as its future head-quarters, where all the meetings will be held, except those of the Niobrara League, and where the President can be found every Wednesday morning from ten to twelve o'clock, from November until May.

This Auxiliary has lost a valued officer in the death of Mrs. Geo. D. Bley-thing. She was one of its original members. She possessed much wisdom, gentleness and forcefulness, and we shall miss her presence and her counsel.

These bare facts give no idea of the prayers and the love that have gone forth with the gifts, nor of the reflex benefit to the givers. We cannot attach too much importance to the Prayer League, as a means to success in Missions. "What ye ask for, believing, ye shall receive."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. WATSON,

President

The Rev. Dr. Ashton presented and read the following report:

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE AND ITS RELATION TO THE DIOCESE.

The members of the Committee appointed by the Bishop in accordance with a resolution of the Convention, 1901, "to investigate the present condition of St. Stephen's College, especially with regard to the changes and improvements lately made in the standards and work of the College, and also upon the relation and responsibility of the Diocese of New York to the College," * unanimously and respectfully report:

The Diocese of New York is undoubtedly and without question responsible for the original establishment of the College.

In 1856, Bishop Horatio Potter said in his Convention Address: "One of the urgent wants of this Diocese is a Church Training School, to take charge of hopeful youth from a very early age, and, by faithful intellectual and religious culture, to prepare them for the work of the Holy Ministry."†

In 1857, the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning reported: "And

* Journal of the Convention of New York, 1901, pages 75, 76 and 11.

among their further suggestions, they would venture to renew that made by them in their last annual Report, on a Diocesan Training School, endowed and ecclesiastically recognized and governed, to which the Society might confidently remand such of their applicants, now assigned to the charge and superintendence of individual Clergy, as being, through the want of classical attainments or other causes, disqualified for entrance on the full Seminary course."*

In 1859 the Convention resolved: "That this Convention recognizes the Training School and College at Annandale as a Diocesan Institution, and worthy of the confidence and patronage of Churchmen, and that the Trustees of said Training School and College be requested to make an annual report to the Bishop and Convention of this Diocese, to be read and entered on the Journal of the Convention."†

Moreover, the Diocese and College were brought into intimate and permanent organic relation by the fact that "the Acting Bishop of the Diocese in which the College is situated, and one of the members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, to be designated from time to time by the said Committee," have always been members of the Board of Trustees of the College, in accordance with the "Plan" passed in 1859.‡

It is self-evident, therefore, that the College was founded by the Diocese and that the duty of maintaining the College is primarily imperative upon the Diocese.

Ever since the foundation of the College the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning has made most generous appropriations for its maintenance, and the Superintendent and Treasurer of the Society have always been members of the Board of Trustees of the College. This is a provision of the Charter.§

These gifts, however, do not relieve the Diocese of any of its obligations.

The College, originally limited to candidates for Holy Orders and to men somewhat advanced in life intending to enter the Ministry, has been enabled by various benefactions to open its doors to every young man who desires to obtain a thorough college education, under Church influences. It is, in fact, the only distinctly Church College within the diocese. Besides this, it is the only Church College in the country to which persons of moderate means can send their sons, without incurring financial obligations to friends or societies.

The August number of the official organ of a neighboring Diocese says: "St. Stephen's graduates are found in almost every Diocese, one in every twenty-five of the entire Clergy of the United States. On a careful estimate these men care for one-twentieth of all the communicants of the Church. It may be therefore seen what the College has already accomplished in fulfilling the hopes of its founders."||

But to maintain and insure its usefulness, the College needs additional funds. Not mentioning what the plain duty of the diocese is, we declare most emphatically that we know of no nobler and no more worthy institution to which the wealthy and generous can make liberal contributions and endowments.

Many and radical changes have been recently made under the administration of the Rev. L. T. Cole, Ph.D., changes, it is believed, which will result in the improved efficiency and increased prosperity of the College.

The Preparatory Department has been abolished. The "Special Course" for candidates for Holy Orders has been withdrawn by the Trustees; and in its place an opportunity is offered for men who are older than the ordinary College student to elect whatever subjects they need to complete their preparation for technical work. The College Curriculum has been improved and enlarged by Dr. Cole. The improvement consists mainly in changes in method, textbooks, and increased number of courses; especially in English, Chemistry, Philosophy and Modern Languages. A greater increase will follow both in volume and efficiency when the necessary means are secured.

The work done in St. Stephen's is fully equal to that of the best of the so-called smaller colleges of the country. It is comprehensive, thorough, and Christian.

In conclusion, in view of the great need at the present time of good Church colleges fitted to impart a thorough classical and scientific education at a minimum of cost, we recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

RESOLVED: ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE, BY ITS HISTORY, ITS PAST WORK, AND ITS OBJECT, IS ENTITLED TO MOST GENEROUS SUPPORT BY THE DIOCESE, AND ALSO BY MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH AT LARGE.

A. T. ASHTON,
ARTHUR C. KIMBER,
CHARLES F. HOFFMAN,
ANDREW C. ZABRISKIE.

The resolution appended thereto was adopted.

Inspectors.

The Chair declared that the Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., having received a majority of both orders, was duly elected.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Rev. Dr. D. H. Greer be and hereby is declared to be the unanimous choice of this Convention for Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New York.

The Chair appointed Rev. Dr. Parks, Rev. Dr. Grosvenor and Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan to notify Dr. Greer of his election.

On motion the Secretary of Convention was instructed to prepare the canonical testimonial to be signed by the members of this Convention.

On motion the President of the Standing Committee was authorized to take all necessary measures to procure the Consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor, in case the Rev. Dr. Greer accepts the election.

The Committee appointed to notify Dr. Greer reported that Dr. Greer would appear before the Convention to-morrow morning.

On motion the Convention adjourned till Thursday at 10 A.M.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, October 1, 1903.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D., the Rev. J. Selden Spencer, D.D., the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., and the Rev. John Williams.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and the delegates present to-day but not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Bishop then instructed the Committee, appointed to wait upon Dr. Greer and to inform him of his election, to escort the Bishop Coadjutor-elect to the platform, and the Convention received him standing and remained standing, while Dr. Greer announced his acceptance, as follows:

I am too much impressed with the solemnity of this occasion to use the ordinary language of conventional courtesy to thank you for what you have done.

I do not at all regard it in the light of honor and compliment. It is far above all that. It is a great and sacred trust to which you have seen fit to summon me.

I think I may say what many of you know, I did not seek it. I rather shrank from it. I was happy and contented in my field of work, and hoped that in that field I could fill up the full measure of my usefulness to God and my fellow men, and it breaks my heart to leave it. But you have called me.

One thing, however, you could not and cannot, and, I am sure, would not, compel me to do. You could not compel me to be the Bishop of any party or school of thought in this Diocese or in the Church at large. I recognize the fact that beneath the surface, however diversified that surface may be, there is a deep and loyal devotion to our common Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

There is no name that can so touch and sway our hearts as that name. That name is the one that I shall recognize and that personality is the one that I shall try to serve.

There are only two things for me to say in conclusion. One is that it would be a great privilege to stand by the side of our worthy and noble Bishop, who has for a score of years borne the burden of this arduous responsibility and work, and who has attained the highest reputation and character, not only throughout this Diocese, but throughout the Church, and who has discharged his duties in such a faithful and conscientious manner and with such statesmanlike ability.

The only other thing I have to say, gentlemen, is this: I cannot but recognize it as the call of God, and whatever it may involve to me personally, as such, with such power as God has given me and such help as you can furnish and supply, I will, if your choice should be confirmed by the Church at large, accept the responsibility and devote myself to the work of that high office.

After these words by Dr. Greer, the Convention united in singing the Doxology, "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow."

The Secretary then read the testimonial for the Consecration of the Bishop Coadjutor, and it was signed by a constitutional majority of the Clergy and Lay Delegates composing the Convention.*

On motion of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese be fixed at $10,000, to date from his consecration, together with a suitable residence.

Resolved, That it be referred to the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, with power to provide, from the income of the fund or from gifts, pledges or assessments, the sum necessary to meet the obligations of the Diocese to its Bishops.

Rev. Dr. Batten presented report of Committee on Readjustment of Diocesan Lines, and moved for adoption of the resolutions appended thereto.

The Committee of Conference on the Readjustment of Diocesan Lines begs leave to submit the following report:

This Committee was given power to correspond with the authorities of other Dioceses in the State to ascertain whether any concerted action in the readjustment of Diocesan Lines was possible or desirable.

Any concerted action was deemed impossible, and therefore no correspondence was undertaken with the authorities of any other Diocese.

The Committee then took up the consideration of the main question submitted to it, whether a division of the present Diocese was expedient. This question the Committee weighed very carefully, deeming the matter to be of great importance to the welfare of the Diocese.

That the present Diocesan, after twenty years of faithful service, should be given relief, and that provision should be made for a closer Episcopal supervision of the many interests of this great Diocese, are too evident to need argument. But the needed relief could not be given most expeditiously by the division of the Diocese. Whether a division may become expedient in the future can safely be left for future determination. For the present it is the judgment of your Committee that a division of the present Diocese of New York is not expedient.

Resolved, That this report be accepted, and the Committee be discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington requested that the question be divided. Vote being taken on the acceptance of the report, it was accepted.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington then presented a minority report, and moved the adoption of the resolution appended thereto.

MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, members of the Committee on the Readjustment of Diocesan Lines, finding themselves unable to concur in the conclusions reached by their associates, ask leave briefly to express their views and to move a substitute for the Resolution of the Committee.

It appears from the official statistics of the Diocese of New York, that the Diocese at present numbers 391 clergy, 246 churches and chapels, and 73,074 communicants. These figures are far in advance of those attained by any other Diocese in the Church, and of themselves suggest that the time has come for a divisional movement. Moreover, it appears from a study of our statistics, as these are tabulated in the Convention Journal, that a new diocese, made up of so much of the present Diocese of New York as lies beyond the city limits, would in point of number of communicants, number of clergy, and number of parishes and missions, rank twelfth in our list of sixty Dioceses.

The undersigned conceive that when any geographical fraction of the Church's area has attained this measure of ecclesiastical strength, it is simply a matter of common duty that it should seek the status of a Diocese. It is not so much a question of what individual parishes prefer, as it is a question of what an aggregate of clergy and communicants owe to the rest of the Church.

The undersigned have no wish to minimize the financial difficulties that might attend the erection of a new Diocese, in connection with the maintenance of the Episcopate and the support of missionary work in the rural districts. They are convinced, however, that the ultimate gain that would accrue to the portion of territory set off, from an increase of Episcopal oversight, would far outweigh in importance any temporary embarrassment which division might entail.

They recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the deputies to the General Convention be instructed, after a divisional line shall have been agreed upon by this body, to take such preliminary steps as the Constitution requires to secure a division of the Diocese of New York.

WM. R. HUNTINGTON,
O. APPLGATE, JR.,
THOMAS RICHEY,
ARTHUR H. JUDGE,
LEANDER H. CRALL,
J. VAN VECHTEN OLCOTT.

While the matter was under discussion the Convention took a recess till two o'clock.

On reassembling after recess, the Rev. Dr. Thomas moved that the vote on this question be taken not later than 2.55 P.M.

The Rev. Mr. Chew moved as a substitute the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in the judgment of this Convention, it is not expedient to press at this session the division of the Diocese.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Division of the Diocese be continued, and that two additional clergymen and two additional laymen be added, which was adopted.

The Bishop appointed as such committee:

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin, in behalf of the Committee, presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHANGE OF NAME OF THIS CHURCH.

The Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address referring to the name of this Church, respectfully report the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Committee the present name of the Church is cumbersome, and when the mind of the Church is more completely settled upon a proper name, that action should be taken to secure the adoption of such name.

F. M. CLENDENIN,
LORING W. BATTEN,
JOHN P. PETERS,
HENRY LEWIS MORRIS.

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson moved that the question be recommended to the Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington moved as an amendment, that the consideration of the whole subject of the change of name for the Church be indefinitely postponed, for the reason that, in the judgment of this body, the method of ascertaining the mind of the Church upon a subject of great importance is unconstitutional.

The amendment was accepted by Mr. Stetson, and was adopted.

Owing to the pressure of other business the Rev. Dr. Thomas moved that the reports of the Archdeacons be not read; but that they be printed in the journal, which was adopted.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

Since our last meeting, the note of encouragement in the Mission field of the Archdeaconry of Orange has been sounded by the successful completion of the Chapel of St. Andrew at Montgomery, Orange County. The opening service was held on the 17th of July, on which occasion the Archdeacon presided, and preached the Sermon. Addresses were also made by the Rev. Dr. Lewis, Missionary in Charge, the Rev. Henry Barker of Rosendale, and the Rev. Francis Washburn of Newburgh. On September 16th, 1900, services were begun at Montgomery in the Grand Army Hall, and have been continued regularly on Sunday afternoons by Dr. Lewis since that date. Soon a building fund was started which steadily increased by contributions of the people of Montgomery, and from friends outside. One lady, Mrs. Retta B. Collins, gave five hundred dollars towards the work as a memorial to her deceased husband.

Among the gifts presented and secured through the efforts of the Missionary may be mentioned sums of money from several New York Rectors; the altar, reredos, chancel rails, Bishop's chair, lectern, pulpit, bell, and Sunday-school seats from the Rector and Vestry of Grace Church, Millbrook, Dutchess County; the brass altar cross, vases, and the sterling silver Communion vessels, in memoriam, from the Rev. Dr. George C. Houghton, Rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, New York; a Bible for the lectern from the Rev. Dr. Octavius Applegate; a service book from the Rev. John Huske; a font from the Chapel of the Epiphany, New York; altar linen from St. James' Guild, Goshen, N. Y., and several other articles from individuals and business firms. To the earnest, persevering and consecrated efforts of Dr. Lewis the building of this chapel is due. It is situated in the midst of an intelligent and industrious community, and is at present worked in connection with the long-established parish at Walden.

The summer ministrations at Christ Church, Mead's Mount, under the care of the Rev. W. B. Guion, have elicited more than ordinary interest among both guests and permanent population. Three public services each Lord's Day have been maintained, and a Sunday-school of thirty pupils gathered in. Two adults and four infants have been baptized, and the Holy Communion has been duly administered. One hundred and twenty-three pastoral calls have been made among the mountaineers.

As indicated in my last annual report, the anticipated transfer of the property at Greenwood Lake, consisting of a chapel and the small island upon which it is situated, has been duly made and an organization effected under the title of Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The Rev. J. Holmes McGuinness has been elected Rector, and employs a Seminarian as lay reader to assist him. The lay reader is very necessary, as Mr. McGuinness is also in charge of Arden, Chester and Monroe.

The missions at Callicoon and Long Eddy have suffered from vacancies; unavoidable, because of the slender support available, but a missionary has been employed during five months of the year, and it is earnestly hoped that ere long permanent services may be provided for. During the month of August the Rev. William F. Lewis of Peekskill (to whom the mission owes its establishment) has officiated at St. Bartholomew's Mission, Big Indian, Catskill Mountains.

At Rifton, Ulster County, the Rev. Thomas Burrows of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout, has ministered in St. Thomas' Chapel during the last Conventional year. He has done this in addition to his work at Rondout, by driving out on Sunday afternoon and returning to his city charge in time for Evening Service.

The resignation of the Rev. Charles A. Tibbals, missionary at Marlborough and Milton, will take effect on October 1, 1903.

The station at New Palts has been served during the summer by a lay reader, under the direction of the Rev. C. M. Hall of Holy Cross, Kingston, who also most kindly went out at stated intervals to administer the Holy Communion. New Palts is important because of the State Normal School located there, and arrangements are now in progress for the maintenance of ministrations during the autumn and winter.

It is with pleasure I record the completion of the Delafield Memorial Parish House at High Falls, Ulster County, to which reference was made in my last report. This is an improvement to the plant of the greatest practical value, and its usefulness is deeply appreciated by the devoted Missionary, the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, who has now completed thirteen years of splendid service in that difficult field.

Reports from all other missions and parishes clearly show the results of patient, hopeful and brave service on the part of your missionaries.

W. R. THOMAS,
Archdeacon.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF WESTCHESTER.

The Archdeaconry of Westchester has been writing this year her part of the history of Diocesan Missions, and finds the annals bright and inspiring. On January 29th a Jubilee Celebration was held, to recall fifty years of work in our three counties of Westchester, Putnam and Rockland. This had been accomplished by three bodies, the Clerical Association, the Southern Missionary Convocation, and the Archdeaconry of Westchester. The Bishop, to our regret, could not be present. The Archdeacon celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by the Secretary of the Convention, and some of the elder clergy, the Rev. J. Selden Spencer preaching the sermon. At a meeting in the afternoon an admirable historic paper was read by the Rev. William Samuel Coffey, Rector of St. Paul's, Eastchester. Too warm praise cannot be given to Mr. Coffey for this comprehensive sketch; for, while it told the story of our missions for half a century, requiring two full years of painstaking research in its preparation, it is a most helpful contribution to the history of our part of the Diocese. The Archdeaconry, with the coöperation of the Southern Missionary Convocation, has taken order for its publication. Another notable event transpired in the fifteenth anniversary of the Ministry of Assistant Minister, Rector and Rector Emeritus of the Rev. J. Selden Spencer. The 7th of May last was given up to the celebration in Christ Church, Tarrytown, and the parish and town vied with each other in doing honor to Mr. Spencer. We are glad to add that Hobart College sounded the last great note of this remarkable celebration, by conferring on this priest the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology.

Within ten days, St. John's, Pleasantville, had its Jubilee to commemorate the incorporation of the church, on Sept. 20th, 1853. The Archdeacon had the honor and privilege of celebrating and preaching on that Sunday, after an interesting historic paper had been read by the Rector, Rev. S. F. Holmes. These three Jubilees are reported here because they recount the work done in the Archdeaconry for fifty years, and the men who did it contributed to the growth and progress of the Church in that time; giving us our fair heritage to-day in the Archdeaconry of more than fifty churches and missions.

Our year has been encouraging and hopeful. We have no debt, and meet obligations each quarter promptly. We are reaching out into new fields, and have been able to enter upon them, while giving added assistance to the old ones. We have been fortunate in having our workers stand in their lot. There are three of them who are veterans in the cause, and whose years and labors entitle them to rest, and respite from active duty. But they have no such mind. We have felt, however, that they need help, that a larger work may be attained. This we are giving in offering assistants, who will work under their guidance and profit by their experience.

At Elmsford, Rev. J. O. Davis has kept up the interest in the Mission, though the community shows no sign of growth.

At Lewisboro, Rev. C. M. Selleck reports added strength, and continuing improvements of Church property, both at St. John's and South Salem. In January next this Missionary, to whom we owe much for faithful service, spiritual and material, will have completed twenty years of work. Just now they are expending about seven hundred dollars in grading Church property and glebe at Lewisboro. During Mr. Selleck's term of service about $3,000 of debt has been paid, a new chapel built, and its property leased to the Diocese for future use.

At Harrison, All Saints' Church, under the Rev. George K. MacNaught, has had a bright year. The current expenses met; a large attractive rectory about ready for occupancy; a gift of a handsome lot of land adjoining and in the rear of the church, with a small endowment fund of about four thousand dollars, are notes that give them hope in their parochial life. And the congregations and Sunday-school attendance cheer them on the spiritual side. Rev. Mr. Butler, at Sherwood Park, is diligently working his mission. Pelham, served by the Rev. C. W. Bolton, grows in vicinage and church, and with clerical assistance the parish cannot fail to develop. Pleasantville, St. John's, under the Rev. S. F. Holmes, reports increase of people, and great improvements in God's House and Acre. Tuckahoe, St. John's Parish, Rev. John W. Buckmaster, Rector, keeps up regular services, and shows continuous interest in church and Sunday-school.

In Putnam County, at Patterson, Rev. W. H. Meldrum Rector and Missionary, they are happy this year in a new church consecrated, the gift of a faithful woman in the parish. This is a worthy offering from a warm friend and worker in this venerable parish, and cannot fail to add to their Church growth and influence. Mr. Meldrum has also been able of late, with the help of Rev. Mr. Hammarsköld, to minister to a goodly number of Swedes, who have come to Patterson.

Lake Mahopac, Richardville and West Somers are diligently served by Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe, assisted this year by Mr. Folsom, a student from the General Theological Seminary. The work in the new mission at West Somers prospers. Ground has been broken for the church, and $1,275 contributed towards its building. In Rockland County, at Haverstraw and Tomkins' Cove, Rev. W. A. Masker keeps up the services regularly, and ministers not a little in the surrounding country. At Garnerville, Rev. C. C. Proffitt finds much to cheer him. A remarkable class for confirmation, to the number of forty-four, shows both the faithfulness of the priest and a spiritual growth in the parish.

Rev. Thomas Stephens, ever faithful and full of zeal, with old-time vigor, and the will of the old soldier that he was before ordination, serves Spring Valley, New City, Pearl River, the County House and Ladentown in the Hills, when the Bishop will let him. Rev. Mr. Howells has efficiently aided Mr. Stephens this year, by an arrangement made through our Standing Committee. If we say that our present in the Archdeaconry is most cheering and our future outlook hopeful, we may express the view of one who loves to be an optimist in the Church's work; but it is also a view amply sustained by results during the year. And this is largely due to the wise counsel, the sympathetic coöperation and able administration of our honored Bishop. The best gift we can offer him will be an assurance that the Missions of the Diocese thrive and prosper, while we pledge him that they shall not lack our interest, our prayers and our support.

FREDERICK B. VAN KLEECK, Archdeacon.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONS OF KENTUCKY.

The general report of the Archdeaconry is of the most encouraging character. As shown by the reports of the ministers and lay members in charge, the work has been carried on most faithfully, and with gratifying success. In those of the ministers, which are supplied by lay members, the Holy Communion has been administered regularly each month by the ministers, and there have been baptisms whenever needed.

The Rev. Mr. Fair, of St. Stephen's, Louisville, reports a favorable financial condition, the floating debt of the parish having been greatly reduced by a liberal giving on the part of the people at the Easter offering. The choir-room has been enlarged, and it is proposed to increase the seating capacity of the church, for which any outside aid will be gratefully received.

The Rev. Mr. Thompson, of St. Simon's, Concord, reports continued activity, and a marked improvement in the attendance at the services. All the parish organizations have done faithful work, and the obligations of the parish have been completely paid, so that there is no debt against the church. The church building is in need of some repairs, for which any help will be gratefully received.

Mr. Behringer, of the Church of the Holy Comforter, Hillsville, reports a most marked improvement in every department of church work. A vocal choir of fifteen voices has been organized, the attendance at the church services has greatly increased, the offerings have been more liberal, and everything indicates an earnest and hearty spirit on the part of the congregation, which gives great promise for the future.

Mr. Burback, of the Chapel of Our Father, Erastus, in his report, shows a growing interest and activity in that mission. There is a prospect of paying off a mortgage that has long been a burden to the church, and the offerings nearly meet the regular expenses. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the zeal and activity, the faithful, earnest work of all the young men who are doing the duty of lay readers, and it gives me great pleasure to make this public acknowledgment.

Mr. Stowell, of Trinity Mission, New Dorp, reports a most prosperous condition of affairs. In every branch of Church work there is the most encouraging interest and activity, with every prospect of steady growth and permanent prosperity. It is a matter of the deepest regret to me that Mr. Stowell has not been able to continue his good work at New Dorp, but wherever he is called, he has the best wishes of us all, for his promising future. The work has been carried on since Mr. Stowell's resignation by Mr. E. R. Noble, of the General Seminary, and he seems to have done it most successfully, in every department.

I take this opportunity to express my obligations to the Rev. Messrs. Thompson, Fair and Sloan, who have been most obliging and faithful in giving me their help, when from my infirmities or prohibitory weather I have been unable to keep my appointments. With their help I have been able to do what I have, in the way of duty, and it is only by the kind help of such friends that I can hope to continue to act as Archdeacon, till the Bishop releases me from the responsibility.

GEO. D. JOHNSON,
Archdeacon.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

The Archdeacon of Dutchess gratefully acknowledges the manifest tokens of God's blessing on the missionary work during the past year. The nine mission stations are all supplied with energetic and efficient missionaries; all the parishes and mission stations (Amenia Union excepted) have regularly met their financial obligations, and the year has been marked by signs of growth and aggressive effort.

St. Thomas' Church, Amenia Union, is under the charge of the Rev. H. N. Wayne. But little of an encouraging nature can be said of the work in this old parish. It is an inland station, five miles distant from the railroad, and the population is steadily decreasing. We have here a beautiful church in good repair, and a rectory very much in need of repair. So few are the members of the church, that it seems that the support of the work and maintenance of the property must be supplied from outside sources.

The missionary is doing all that can be done in this field. He holds one service here every Sunday.

St. James' Mission, Dover Plains, also under the care of the Rev. Mr. Wayne, gives evidence of great promise. This is a railroad town situated on the Harlem Railroad, and here there is growth.

The members of the mission are thoroughly in earnest, and united in all their efforts for the welfare of the Church. They are handicapped greatly by the place in which the services are held—the upper rooms of a private house—as the place is not large enough to hold all those who would come, and this in some measure retards the growth of the mission. This is a matter of concern, as the condition of affairs at Dover Plains is most favorable to the Church. The members of the mission realize the condition, and are doing all in their power. Money has been raised for the purchase of a lot in the central part of the village, and as soon as his property is secured an attempt will be made to build a church. Financial aid towards this object, it is hoped, may be received from outside sources—if this can be done, it seems most probable that Dover will, in no long time, itself become a centre of missionary activity.

At Glenham—the Rev. J. H. Ivie, missionary—the property has been put in good order. The income from the Livingston legacy has become available for the work of the mission, thus saving $110 per year to the Archdeaconry.

At Hopewell Junction—the Rev. D. B. Ray, missionary—the outlook is most encouraging. All financial obligations have been met, the mission raising this year nearly $500, the largest amount in its history. There have been 11 baptisms, and 12 persons confirmed since the last report, and there has also been a gain in the number of families. The life of the Church is here being strengthened in a wise and conservative manner.

The Church life in the old established parishes of Pleasant Valley, Lithgow and Pine Plains has been excellent in view of the fact that there is no growth in these towns. The Rev. R. R. Upjohn, who is now in charge of Pleasant Valley, reports the attendance at the services most encouraging. He has identified himself with the interests of the town, and largely through his influence a public library has been established.

The Rev. H. N. Lawrence, of Pine Plains, holds service and Sunday-school in three places outside of Pine Plains, which would otherwise be without any religious instruction—Bethel, Attlebury, and Vosburg. In these places and the parish church he has baptized 15 during the past year.

St. Peter's Church, Lithgow—under the care of the Rev. W. C. Rodgers—has received a legacy of $300 by the will of a former parishioner, Mrs. Sackett, the income to be used for the maintenance of services.

Reynoldsville is served by the Rev. W. H. Meldrum, who reports that a mission lasting ten days has lately been held there, with very gratifying success.

At Stone House, the school and mission are still cared for by Mr. A. C. Hurdick, a lay reader, who lives among the people. Too much cannot be said of his excellent influence among these people.

On the 30th January, 1903, the Archdeacon had the pleasure and privilege of presiding at the service which marked the opening of Zion Chapel, New Hamburg, and of preaching the sermon. This work is the result of long years of faithful labor on the part of the clergy and laity of Zion Church, Wappingers Falls. It is believed to be the first church in this country, built to the glory of God and to perpetuate the memory of the martyred President, Wm. McKinley. The chapel is supported by the offerings of the people of New Hamburg, assisted by the mother parish, at Wappingers Falls.

On June 3, 1903, the anniversary of the birth of the Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D.D., the new "Gallaudet Home for Deaf Mutes," at New Hamburg, was formally opened by the Archdeacon, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Chamberlain and several of the clergy. It will be remembered that the Home was destroyed by fire, about two years ago, and the new building, occupying the site of the old one, was made possible by the untiring efforts of Dr. Gallaudet. It is proposed that this date, June 3d, shall be annually observed in his memory, as the Home is a monument to his unselfish labors and interest in the deaf mutes.

The Archdeaconry has cause for thankfulness that the financial condition, under the efficient management of its treasurer, Mr. H. C. Barker, is such that with the supplemented and gratefully appreciated aid received from the general fund of the diocese, all stipends have been promptly paid.

A list of the stations, with the names of the clergy in charge, has been sent to the Secretary of the Convention.

A. T. ASHTON,

Archdeacon of Dutchess.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF NEW YORK.

At its last annual meeting of December 2, 1902, the Archdeaconry of New York accepted Archdeacon Tiffany's resignation with regret, and expressed, in the form of a Minute prepared by a Committee appointed for the purpose, the affectionate regard of his brethren and their appreciation of his faithful and fruitful work. This was certainly a fitting recognition of Dr. Tiffany's service, and the Archdeaconry, though still mindful of the loss occasioned by his retirement, may well be congratulated that for eight years it had the benefit of his wise and vigorous administration.

The value of the Archdeaconry's efforts in the interest of Church Extension has been abundantly demonstrated during the past year. It would be strange if the record had proved otherwise. Indeed, it would be difficult to imagine a more promising field than the Bronx for the missionary sower who goes forth to sow. With an area twice as large as that of Manhattan, and comprising that northern part of the city which alone offers room for the overflow of the crowded population below Harlem River without crossing to Brooklyn or Staten Island or New Jersey, it is easy to see that the rapidly growing Bronx offers the Church unrivalled opportunities.

One among many impressive reminders of this fact is found at the Chapel of the Advocate. That Mission began its existence in a small rented room about four years ago with a congregation of nineteen, and an equally small Sunday-school. A year ago services were held in a larger rented room. But since then the conditions have so changed for the better that the congregation and the Sunday-school have much increased in numbers. The Mission now has 224 communicants, 72 having been added to the list during the past year, including 21 candidates confirmed, and the Sunday-school comprises 26 officers and teachers, and 368 scholars.

This large increase has been made possible by the generous action of Trinity Parish. Out of a timely appropriation of $30,000 made by that parish for building sites for our Archdeaconry Missions, the sum of $13,250 was expended for the Advocate Mission in the purchase of a choice double lot at Washington Avenue and 181st Street, and there during the past year a frame dwelling, already on the ground at the time of the purchase, has been enlarged and transformed into a combined Chapel and Parish House of attractive appearance, at an outlay of about $10,000, including the cost of a large organ and other furnishings, and a considerable part of this sum has been contributed by the congregation.

St. Simeon's Mission, Melrose, has also made encouraging progress, though it is still hampered for want of suitable accommodations, as it continues to rent and occupy a small house of insufficient space for its needs. It now has 150 communicants. Since the last Diocesan Convention an increase of 75 families has been reported; 25 children and 3 adults have been baptized, and 8 candidates have been confirmed. With funds provided by Trinity Parish, a lot has been bought for St. Simeon's congregation, at the corner of Morris Avenue and 165th Street. Stone sufficient for the foundations of the church edifice has been delivered and paid for, and the sum of $3,600 has been raised as part of the sum required for the other larger expenses of construction.

St. David's, which is the Mission of the Archdeaconry ministering to our colored brethren in the Bronx, has made an excellent record since its report of a year ago. This is one of the three Missions which have been fortunate enough to obtain building sites out of the appropriation made by Trinity Parish. A year ago it occupied a rented room that had formerly been a saloon and dance hall. Now it occupies the large and finished crypt of the new church edifice that is yet to be built; and though the corner stone was not laid until last January, such has been the growth of the Mission since it took possession of its new quarters that the list of communicants now numbers 185, a class of 34 candidates having been confirmed last spring, while 23 officers and teachers, and 431 scholars, are on the rolls of the Sunday-school.

Like the Missions of the Advocate and St. David's, three others, viz., St. George's, Williamsbridge; St. Stephen's, Woodlawn; and St. Alban's, High Bridge, are on their own ground. St. George's congregation still worships in the completed crypt of the proposed church edifice, the inner walls having been plastered and wainscotted during the past summer. Here, as at St. Simeon's and St. David's, we are waiting for funds with which to carry building plans into effect. St. Stephen's substantial and admirable church edifice was built a few years ago on an eligible site near the southern boundary of Yonkers. The smaller place of worship known as St. Alban's, High Bridge, was also completed about the same time, but it is now found to be inadequate, as it has 91 communicants, 14 of whom were recently confirmed, and 130 Sunday-school scholars, together with various guilds; and so it is proposed, if funds can be raised for the purpose, to build an addition to the Chapel at a cost of $1,500.

It is an interesting fact that at St. Alban's, and at the Chapel of the Holy Nativity, Bedford Park, the Ministers in charge are Deacons whose work is a labor of love, wholly without salary. And besides these two Missions, there are four others that are entirely self-supporting, all four occupying rented rooms; viz., St. Martha's, Morris Park Avenue; the Mission of the Holy Spirit, Freeman Street; the Atonement, Westchester Avenue and 175th Street, and the new Mission of Emmanuel in East 155th Street, the last named having been recently established, and already numbering 60 Sunday-school scholars, 25 families and 20 communicants, of whom 8 were confirmed some months ago. Moreover, four of these six self-supporting Missions have small balances in the bank, belonging to their respective building funds, the largest of these being that of the Bedford Park congregation, which amounts to $1,100, including pledges. And surely no one can doubt that it would be a wise investment to help these sturdy pioneer congregations—these forerunners of strong parishes—to buy good sites and build suitable houses of worship for themselves, and for those who are to come after them.

Four of these self-supporting Missions, though visited by clergymen for celebrations of the Holy Communion and other offices of the Church, are under the immediate direction of four licensed lay-readers, assisted by sixteen others on active duty in the Sunday-schools and various organizations, and the good results which have been obtained there are largely due to these laymen of the Lay Helpers' Association. Their work, and that of others of the same Association who have been coöperating with us at other Missions of the Archdeaconry, has been given without money and without price, and has uniformly been marked by a fine spirit of devotion to a high ideal of service.

Would that they and all who are trying to lay such timely foundations as those here mentioned could be cheered by seeing the fulfilment of their hope of a general awakening of the churches in Manhattan to this great missionary opportunity in the Bronx!

(Signed) J. MCL. NASH.

The Treasurer of Diocesan Missions begs leave to bring the following facts to the notice of the Convention:

During the year ending Oct. 1, 1903, he has received, including the balance of $1,599.23, the sum of $9,152.63, while he has expended the sum of $10,300.00, showing a deficiency in receipts of $1,150.00.

Unless the claims of our Diocesan Missions are kept in mind by our Parishes, it will not be a long time before our appropriation to the several rural Archdeaconries will have to be materially reduced.

Respectfully,

JAMES POTT,

Treasurer.

Referring to the foregoing statement, the Trustees report to the Convention, with regret, that church collections for this fund continue to decrease. In the year ending with the Convention of 1901, they amounted to $7,313.49; 1902, they amounted to $6,767.58; 1903, they amounted to $5,683.40.

The Trustees have decided this year to request all clergymen in the Diocese, at the proper time, to arrange for church collections on one of the Sundays preceding or following Thanksgiving or Christmas, since attendance at church services on these holidays is comparatively small.

Mr. J. H. Hewson being obliged to resign as Trustee, on motion of the Secretary, Mr. Augustus F. Holly was elected to succeed him.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Thomas the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be extended to the Rector and Vestry of the Church of the Heavenly Rest for their generous and much valued hospitality.

On motion, the following persons were duly elected as delegates to the Missionary Council:

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D.,
Mr. E. M. Camp.

The Rev. Dr. Morgan presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of this Convention be printed and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller, it was ordered that letters received in regard to apportionment for missions be referred to the committee appointed for that purpose.

The Rev. Mr. Harrower presented the following report:

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

Before passing to its Report for the year, the Sunday-school Commission must record the loss of one of its most devoted and helpful members, the Rev. Edward Walpole Warren, D.D., late Rector of St. James' Church. Dr. Warren was especially concerned for the welfare of youth and the progress of true education. His loss at this time is deeply felt by those with whom he so earnestly labored.

In presenting its Annual Report, the Sunday-school Commission desires to call the attention of the Convention:

1. To the general growth of interest in the problem of improved Sunday-school methods throughout the Church and nation.
2. To the work so far accomplished, as indicated by our office reports.
3. To the financial status of the Commission.
4. To some suggestions for the schools of our own Diocese.

I. The general growth of interest in the Sunday-school question is shown by the fact that since the year 1898, when this Commission was appointed, some twenty other Commissions and Institutes have either been newly appointed or revived. These have in most cases sought to emphasize the same underlying principles on which our Commission was founded, viz., that the work of the Sunday-school must be elevated in the grade of its instruction and its educational ideals, in order that it may contribute its proper and necessary share in building up the Christian character of our civilization.

Directly consequent upon this wide-spread and deepening conviction among Christians and educators, came the organization in Chicago last February of the National Religious Association, which, among other objects, seeks to emphasize the importance of the Sunday-school as one of the great factors in the religious development and education of this nation. Without enlarging upon this movement, the Commission wishes to affirm its profound conviction that the plans and policy which have governed its work from the first have not only been fully justified, but their authority stands to-day unquestioned.

II. The Work at Present as Indicated by our Reports.

The office at the Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, has now for nearly three years been open for callers, daily from 9.30 A.M. to 5 P.M. Two large rooms are occupied with our stock of lesson books and the general exhibit. This exhibit is constantly increasing, and now embraces some eight thousand samples of Sunday-school books, lessons, maps, models, pictures, and aids of every description. There is no other place in the City of New York where so full and suggestive an exhibit of school appointments can be found. Other Dioceses, e.g., Massachusetts and California, are collecting similar exhibits. Several hundred callers have visited the office during the past year, and our correspondence is also very large, covering well-nigh all the Dioceses in this country and Canada.

Our reference library is remarkably full and valuable; and a number of teachers have from time to time rented from us books for private study. The

PUBLICATIONS. In June, 1902, the Young Churchman Co. became the official publishers of our Lesson Series.

In addition to the Commission Manuals are several other Source Method Courses, covering topics not yet dealt with by the Commission, but which have been found temporarily most useful in many schools, and are therefore suggested by the manager of the supply department to fit in with the Commission Manuals.

These books have had a combined sale of over 55,000 copies, and more than 80,000 pictures have been sold for use in primary and junior classes. These sales cover parishes in widely remote sections, and we are glad to believe that some of the schools using our own manuals are among the most progressive and successful schools to be found anywhere.

Most urgent letters are constantly received asking for manuals and information as to school grading, teacher-training, and proper appointments for better educational work.

We want here to insist upon the fact that we have not as a Commission sought to play the part either of infallible advisers or the makers of perfect text-books. Whatsoever we have been able to do has been done because we could not refuse to do our best when the demand came upon us. And if we have in any way aided this movement in the country and the Church at large, we can only be grateful, and at the same time confess that our best work has been far below what the Church needs and what the Church will some day possess.

IV. Some Suggestions for the Schools of our own Diocese.

How to reach the schools of our own Diocese more effectually has been one of our chief problems.

1. Teachers' Training Classes and Special Conferences will be continued this coming season, as they are called for here in the city and vicinity. Correspondence is solicited for extension classes or conferences from the rectors and superintendents of all the Sunday-schools of the Diocese. If sufficient number of teachers can be secured in any locality to support a training class of ten lessons (admitting fifty teachers or less), we can supply a skilled conductor for the course.

If a school cannot afford this (the cost averaging about $50 per course of ten lessons), we can send some one to a monthly gathering of teachers for a conference, covering practical and helpful topics of local needs.

2. But for outside parishes we must propose, if possible, some more directly feasible scheme.

How can the rector and his Sunday-school workers coöperate with the Commission in developing the Sunday-school into a more efficient instrumentality?

(1) Let him acquaint himself with the principles and ideals of the Commission.

(2) Discuss the actual conditions of his own school with his teachers, securing a written report from each teacher in answer to specific questions bearing upon his work and drawing out the results of his experience.

(3) Then a sermon to the people, based on the results of their Parish Conference, bringing the whole question before them as a serious educational and religious matter to be dealt with definitely upon its own merits.

(4) A Teachers' Club can be organized with a prearranged schedule of topics for discussion.

(5) An effort should be made to secure within each Archdeaconry during the coming year a general conference of Sunday-school workers. Arrangements for such a conference should be begun at least three months in advance of its proposed date.

(6) The Commission asks that the offering of the school on some one Sunday be set apart and devoted to the work of the Commission, and the Second Sunday in November is suggested for such offering.

3. We shall hope to prepare and submit to rectors in the near future some practical suggestions for courses of lectures, conducted by themselves or their curates, covering some of the subjects implied in the foregoing. The syllabi of such courses would form the basis for normal work and examinations, with such variation from the submitted questions as might seem best to the rector. These courses would be of the most directly practical nature, and free from everything technical and out of touch with ordinary thoughtful and earnest teachers. The object of such effort would be to secure in due time a larger measure of mutual interest throughout our Diocese, and thus realize what the Bishop has felt to be necessary, the building-up of a more efficient teaching staff.

The direct value of the above suggestions is apparent, in view of the facts and conditions brought out in two papers read at the Crypt Conference last May: one on the "Pedagogical Work in the Theological Seminaries of the United States," based on a questionnaire submitted to the Seminaries, and another on "Present Methods of Teacher-Supply and Training in the Diocese of New York," based on a questionnaire submitted to the rectors of the Diocese. This was the first attempt made, within our knowledge, to get at any definite statement upon these two important subjects. They lie at the very foundation of whatever work the Church is doing, or can do, as a Teaching Church. And it is not too much to say that the conditions then brought out are absolutely fatal to any true success. It is easy to make sweeping generalizations based on our impressions and on our pet theories. But it is quite another thing to form a judgment based upon actual reported facts and practices. In the light of these as they now exist in this Diocese, our present methods stand condemned as at best ineffective. This, be it remembered, is not altogether the fault of the present generation. We simply find ourselves without adequate preparation to meet a very important crisis in the matter of the religious education of our children and young people. But it is none the less true that the question for us to answer is whether present conditions are to continue without some serious effort at correction. The responsibility for methods so lax and barren of result begins the moment we have discovered them, and the remedy for them can alone come from our own more earnest and intelligent study of the matter.

One of the characteristic features of the present condition is a certain helpless confusion of mind that results from the feeling that things are wrong, and yet with no real grip upon the problem as a thing to be actually studied until a solution has been wrought out.

It has been well said that "if a parish can afford to support only one educated minister, then that minister should be just as much a teacher as he is preacher and pastor. And if he is thus trained for the teaching work of the Church, the Sunday-school should be as fully under his oversight as the preaching or the pastoral work." But this type of the teacher is not at present the product of our seminaries, and the whole problem of religious education is therefore thrown into confusion. Let us therefore set before ourselves in this Diocese with all the sharper definiteness this distinct question, "How can we in our respective parishes manage to deal with the Sunday-school more honestly, and, if I may so express it, with a serious and honorable purpose to make it, as a school, worthy a child's respect?" Let us take the first step for betterment and be sure that little by little a body of trained teachers will be gathered and the whole grade of our religious education be gradually brought up to a higher standard. For whatever else we may do in the line of parish activity will be comparatively valueless unless we lay foundations of a true education. Never before in the history of Christianity was there greater need than to-day for this teaching-spirit to seize upon and inspire the ministry of the Church.

PASCAL HARROWER,
Chairman.

Rev. Mr. Harrower moved that the Sunday-school Commission be continued, with power to fill vacancies in its number, which was adopted.

Rev. Mr. Harrower offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Sunday, the 18th of October, 1903, and Monday, the 19th, be set apart to be observed as Days of Intercession for Sunday-schools and the cause of Religious Education, and that the Rectors of this Diocese be urged to make such arrangements as may seem to them best calculated to set forward the work of Christian Education in their respective parishes and in the Diocese at large.

Rev. Mr. Harrower moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention approves the purposes and work of the Sunday-school Commission, and hereby urges upon the Rectors of the Diocese during the coming year a more earnest coöperation with the Commission.

Rev. Mr. Harrower moved the reappointment of Committee on Arrangements for Convention, with power to fill vacancies in its number, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Tiffany presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS

The Committee on Canons, to whom on motion of Mr. Stetson was referred the subject of making provision for the relief of a parish in case of the mental or other disability of the rector, respectfully recommend the adoption of the following Canon, to be numbered XXI., and to be entitled,

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

Change the numbers of subsequent Canons to correspond.

On motion of Dr. Tiffany the proposed new Canon was adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Tiffany the proposed new Canon XIV. was recommitted to the Committee to report next year, and the Secretary of Convention was instructed to print the same in the Journal.

PROPOSED NEW CANON XIV.

RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE ON CANONS AND REFERRED TO THE NEXT CONVENTION FOR ACTION.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, or shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty-days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Tiffany the following proposed amendment to Article III. of the Constitution was approved by the Convention, and laid over to the next Convention for final action:

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from every such Church to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation; and of Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention; and of Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any incorporated College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, located within this Diocese; and of Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, located within this Diocese. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

Two or three matters of general interest, in connection with our responsibility, in common with the whole Church in this land, demand, primarily, our attention.

1. And, first of all, is the matter of the missionary apportionment for general missions, both foreign and domestic. The plan proposed in the Board of Missions at its meeting in San Francisco in 1901 by the Right Rev. Dr. Brewer, the Missionary Bishop of Montana, has, by its results, abundantly vindicated both its wisdom and its timeliness. Our theory, up to that time, had been both visionary and sentimental; and our practice had pathetically accorded with it. We were told by eloquent divines whose emotions were, often, too much for their dispassionate intelligence, that the work of missions was the Lord's work, and that we must trust to Him to move men's hearts to sustain it; and, meantime, we were making pledges to men and women who were to be supported in missionary fields, which could only be met by cash payments for their subsistence. If Christian men, down town, had introduced these visionary and unsubstantial methods into their business, they would have met with scant forbearance whether from their creditors or from the courts—and they would not have deserved forbearance. The new method came, therefore, none too soon; and its success is full of inspiration for the future. In order that it should have the entire confidence and approval of the Church in this Diocese, I felt bound to bring it to your notice a year ago, and to ask your action upon it. In accordance with this request, the whole matter was referred to a committee, whose names are recorded in the last Journal of Convention (see p. 11) and with whose Report you are familiar. This committee revised the list of apportionments prepared in the office of the Board of Missions, and the Rector or Minister of each Cure has been informed of the amount regarded as equitably apportioned to his Cure. These apportionments have been very generally recognized and met; and to those at that time still due, I called, a few weeks ago, the attention of those in charge of the Cures concerned. I desire, now, to express, on behalf of the Board of Managers, and in my own behalf, our grateful sense of the cheerful recognition with which this new departure has been received. And having said this much, I might here take leave of this subject if justice to the Diocese of New York would allow me to do so. But it will not; and it is due to the Clergy and the Church people of this Diocese that I should say that neither the apportionment by the Board of Missions, nor the payments made on account of that apportionment, represent, in any just degree, the money contributed by this Diocese to the cause of Missions. The sums collected by individuals, whether laymen, laywomen, Bishops, or other Clergy, are rarely reported by them to anybody—certainly not to the Heads of Parishes out of which they are taken. When I was a presbyter, a certain Missionary Bishop, now no longer living, admitted in my hearing that he had taken out of New York, in a single year, for his work forty thousand dollars. But no report of the contributions making this sum total was furnished to anybody; and neither to the Diocese nor to any Parish or Parishes in the same, was any credit given for this contribution nor for any part of it. I must ask that these facts be borne in mind when the question of our apportionment in this Diocese is discussed.

2. The last General Convention authorized the use, in connection with public worship, of an edition of the Bible with marginal readings prepared by a commission of that body appointed at the Session of 1898. The recognition of the admirable work of this commission has been steadily increasing, and it was a great satisfaction to hear it read at the last Commencement of the General Theological Seminary. The work of the commission—a body eminently conservative in its composition—was of a character which must commend it to all honest men; and if any hesitate to approve of it for sentimental reasons they will, I am sure, be glad to remind themselves that truth is more precious even than childish associations! I shall be happy to present a copy of this edition to any Parish whose Minister will use it.

3. Another matter of common interest to the whole Church has been brought to your notice during the past year, in connection with the proposed change in its name. As yet, I have not seen anything in the way of argument for such change that has seemed to me to demand serious consideration; and I print, as an appendix to this Address, considerable extracts from that of the Bishop of South Dakota, the Right Rev. Dr. Hare, which contain one of the most competent discussions of the whole subject that I have encountered. Happily, we may regard the question as, for the time being, sufficiently disposed of; since, unless I have been misinformed, a clear and considerable majority of the Dioceses of this Church have expressed themselves, however little enamoured of the present title of the Church, as opposed, at present, to any change in it.

But I confess that my difficulty reaches back of that question to another which is raised by the action taken in this matter, and which, whether it is to be regarded as the action of a particular committee, or, as I suppose it is, of the General Convention as a whole, seems to me equally open to criticism. A change in the name of this Church would involve a change, e.g., in the VIIIth Article of the Constitution. But a change in, or amendment of, the Constitution requires, first, action by the General Convention approving such change; and then formal communication to the several Dioceses; and then adoption by the next subsequent General Convention. It is desirable, I think, that, in the matter of a change of name, our constitutional methods should be adhered to; and that, if it is desired, a change of name should first be proposed by the General Convention, and then communicated to the several Dioceses for approval, or its reverse. If this, the customary and constitutional method of procedure in connection with such questions, is followed, it at least abviates the probability of changes which are the result of a manufactured sentiment; or the avoidance, or evasion, by the General Convention of its just and primary responsibilities.

II. Turning from these questions that concern our common interests, let us speak of one or two which are especially our own.

1. And as first of these, I desire to say a word concerning the Cathedral in this Diocese, and its relations to the life of the Church throughout the Diocese, and especially in this great city. By the provisions of the Charter of the Cathedral the five Archdeacons of the Diocese have each a place in its capitular body; and, in the absence of the Ordinary, the Archdeacon of New York acts in his behalf. An association of women has been created which has called into being auxiliary societies in the Parishes throughout the Diocese, and has undertaken to erect one of the porches of the Cathedral. During the past year between $360,000 and $400,000 have been given or bequeathed for general purposes, and the construction of the Choir is now proceeding so far and so fast as the funds at our command and the exigencies of the work will permit. A few years ago, in order to illustrate certain ideas of Cathedral work, and to prevent, also, the extinction of a Mission of honorable traditions, I assumed, individually, the charge and support of a Mission Church in the lower part of this city, and designated it as the Pro-Cathedral. For that purpose the Mission in Stanton Street was used until the completion of the Crypt, and until also it became plain that particular interest in this part of the Church's work in the lower part of the city had become matter of common misapprehension. The Mission in Stanton Street had come to be called 'the Bishop's pet'; and, as it was no longer the Pro-Cathedral, and as its work had no stronger claim upon the sympathy of the Ordinary than any down-town Church work, whether done by Trinity Parish, All Saints' Church, the Church of the Holy Cross, the Chapel of the Holy Comforter, or any other of a similar character, it seemed right and wise that it should pass into the custody of the City Mission Society, by which corporation it is at present administered. It is to be hoped that the Trustees of the Cathedral will be willing to designate as Honorary Canons such of the down-town Clergy as may be especially engaged in Mission work; and by Services in the Cathedral, and by the use of its grounds in summer time, for excursions from the more crowded parts of the city, so to bind together our work, wherever done in this metropolis, in relations which will make the Cathedral a help and refreshment to the least favored among us.

2. The mention of our Missionary Clergy suggests a problem in connection with another class of men in Holy Orders, for whom our respect must be sincere and affectionate, and whose position, nevertheless, in this Convention, needs recognition, and some more explicit definition. We have now some half-dozen Rectors Emeritus (or Rectores Emeriti) in the Diocese of New York, whose seats here could have, so far as I can see, no other warrant than courtesy. The Constitution of this Diocese (see Article III.), which defines the right to a seat in this body, reads, "The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese and settled in some Church which is in union with the Constitution," etc. (see pp. 247 and 248 of the Journal of 1902); and Canon II., of our Diocesan Canons depicts the method by which these facts are to be determined. It cannot truthfully be said that they furnish any warrant for the inclusion of the names of these who are Rectors Emeritus in the list of Clergy entitled to seats in this Convention; and yet I am constrained to say that I have not felt it my duty to instruct our Secretary to omit such names from that list. I suppose that I ought to have done so; but if you had found him present and voting in a Diocesan Convention, could you, if he had had no other claim to a seat, have shown our dear friend and brother, the late Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, who died Rector Emeritus of St. Matthew's Church, the door? Because, if you could, you have more nerve than I have! And yet, e.g., if an Episcopal Election in this Convention should be determined by the votes of two, three, or, even one of the Rectors Emeritus, it would be, as our Diocesan law at present stands, an invalid election. Rectors Emeritus have, of Constitutional or Canonical right, no seats here. Do you not think they ought to have such seats? And if it be true, as it certainly is true, that the Church by no Constitutional or Canonical provision whatever recognizes any such office or status as that of a Rector Emeritus, or secures to it any recognition, right, or privilege on this floor, is it not time that, in this Diocese at any rate, it did so? I trust that at the earliest possible moment this matter may be referred to our Committee on Canons, and that unanimous consent may be given to the reception, without a day's delay, of its report.

3. In addressing you a year ago I pointed out that, with this Convention, twenty years would have elapsed since I was called to this office, my election having taken place, to be precise, on St. Michael's and All Angels' Day, September 29, 1883, a fact, by the way, to which I beg to say that no further reference can be permitted; and I indicated the methods by which the Diocese might secure to itself such more adequate Episcopal Service as I might not myself be able hereafter to render. In accordance with these suggestions, two committees were appointed, one on electing a Bishop Coadjutor (the resolutions appointing this committee will be found on page 80 of the Journal of 1902) and the other (the resolution with reference to which will be found on page 45 of the same Journal) on the readjustment of Diocesan lines. These committees are to report to this Convention, and I shall be glad if these Reports may be made the order of the day as early as practicable, to-morrow. To this end I trust that this afternoon's Session may be protracted until at least 6 P.M.

As the Convention is aware, I have carefully refrained from any official expression of a preference as to the mode by which the present Diocese of New York should secure more, or more efficient, Episcopal Service; and this for reasons which are at least intelligible. It is for the Convention and the Diocese, which are permanencies, and not for the Bishop, who is an incident, to decide what shall be the policy of a Diocese; and therefore it is for the Convention, and not for me, to determine whether it shall excise a part of its present jurisdiction, or whether it shall elect a Coadjutor. If it shall adopt the latter mode of relief, in accordance with the requirements of Section V. of Canon 19 of Title I. of the Digest, which requires that "before the election of a Bishop Coadjutor the Bishop of the Diocese shall consent in writing to such election, and in such consent he shall state the duties which he thereby assigns to the Bishop Coadjutor when duly elected and consecrated" (see Digest, p. 64), I beg to say that I hereby consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of New York, that I hereby resign to him one-half of my salary, and that I hereby assign to him all confirmations in the principal Parishes in the City of New York, all consecrations of Churches and ordinations and all administration of discipline. I shall be glad, if I may, to retain as my own duty Visitations to rural Churches, the admission of candidates for Holy Orders, and of persons in Holy Orders of other Dioceses applying to be transferred to this. I may add that, should this Convention not elect a Bishop Coadjutor, I shall feel at liberty to secure, at my own charges, such Episcopal assistance as I may need in a Diocese whose chief city is, and has for some time been, growing at the rate of 200,000 a year.

I would that time permitted me to tell you something of the efforts which we have been making, especially in the Archdeaconry of New York, to keep pace with this growth. But of this you will learn when we sit as a Board of Missions; and for all that you will learn there, and for all that in any part of this great Diocese is being done towards setting forward the Kingdom of God, we ask your prayers and your sympathy. Christ has given us a large task. May He give us wisdom and courage with which to persevere in it.

There is something in this proposal to change the name of the Church which is not wholly foreign to my modes of thought and feeling. There is in many hearts, I think, a groping after something better than the endless divisions which have so seriously taken away from the moral dignity and authority of the Church, weakened its power to be a unifying and sanctifying influence upon its own members and upon mankind in general, and impaired its power to protect and use the sacred truths committed to its care. They feel that present conditions in the Christian and in the Heathen world demand that we should get clearer conceptions of that institution which is called "The Catholic Church"; that we should give more importance in our thought and action to the fact that a great river of truth and grace, a river of life, issued forth from our Lord Jesus Christ, the incarnate Son of God, when He created and endowed His Church; that this river is flowing full and rich to-day; and that the truth which it carries with it exists distinct from the Biblical record of it. At first sight it seems that this movement to change the name of the Church gives promise of meeting this want and giving the relief which some are groping for. I cannot think, however, that this hope will prove well grounded.

On the general subject of The Holy Catholic Church our position is well known and unequivocal. We have always stood up before God and man and made in the Apostles' Creed our great confession: "I believe in The Holy Catholic Church." . . . And notice that our avowal is not merely that there is a Holy Catholic Church; but that we believe in it. It is to us a supernatural creation. It is the body of Christ. We believe that it holds the faith once delivered to the saints; that it is the sphere of the special action of the Holy Spirit; that it has a right to our allegiance; and that in it we shall find, through the power of its Head, if we are faithful, "the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins and life everlasting."

This is our Creed. We have acted accordingly. In practice we have preserved unbroken the continuity of our Church life and protected its transmission from any possibility of taint or vitiation. We have always unequivocally declared, too, that we have never broken with, and could not be guilty of breaking with, The Holy Catholic Church. We have never baptized into any sect, nor into any other name than that of Father, Son and Holy Ghost; nor have we imposed sectarian conditions of Church membership. This position we inherited from our mother Church of England, and maintained when we became independent, and when we took to ourselves the name "Protestant Episcopal." Our being in name "Protestant Episcopal" has in no way interfered with this grand avowal of the Creed. The name may have intimated that we did not claim to be the whole of The Holy Catholic Church. It may have drawn attention, too, to the contests and trials through which The Holy Catholic Church has passed in its history, to the fact that these contests have sorely divided the Catholic Church, that the Church called "Protestant Episcopal" is only one of the fragments, and also to the fact that in the great division which took place in the sixteenth century our Church put itself on the Protestant and not on the Roman side of the great line of cleavage; but the name has no way belied our grand avowal, "I believe in The Holy Catholic Church."

For one, I am not prepared even to seem to admit, whether by a change of name or by any other act, that we have but just waked up and found that we are Catholic.

But while the change of the name of our Church does not seem to me wise, what would have been opportune and very useful would have been a movement judiciously and quietly to enlarge and intensify our people's conception of just what they mean when they stand up and say, "I believe in The Holy Catholic Church," and an effort to correct the prevalent and very misleading habit of applying the word "Catholic" without a qualifying adjective, like the adjective Roman, to the Church of Rome or any other one branch of the Church of God; a movement to make Christians generally know and feel that the Church is a sacred organism, that as such it may not be tampered with by individual wilfulness, but should be honored and deferred to; an organism in which no part (whether calling itself Protestant or Catholic, or Broad, or High, or Low, or Roman, or Greek) may safely say to another part, "I have no need of you"; an organism which, because it is the body of Christ, is divinely endowed and can communicate to proper persons in sacraments and other means of grace divine gifts. To dwell upon truths like these is work vital and fruitful and peaceable. Merely to attach the word "Catholic" to our name is like applying a piece of court plaster.

To propose to introduce the word Protestant de novo would be one thing, to propose to expunge it is another. For one I am by no means prepared, considering what the popular understanding of the words "Protestant" and "Catholic" is, to give up that word "Protestant" and supplant it by the word "Catholic." Protest has ever been a note of Christian truth. The Lord Jesus Christ, witnessing His good confession before the High Priests, saying, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil; but if well, why smitest thou me?" was protesting. St. Paul withstanding St. Peter to his face and saying, "If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" Gregory the Great of Old Rome protested when John, the Bishop of New Rome, had assumed the title of Universal Bishop: "I confidently affirm," Gregory wrote, "that whosoever calls himself Universal Priest is in his pride going before anti-Christ."

As a matter of history and of fact, the attitude of the Church in England has been (and of necessity) one of protest ever since the Bishop of Rome began his usurpations and his encroachments on her rights. The celebrated Bishop of Lincoln, Dr. Christopher Wordsworth, declares (Theo. Americanus, p. 197):

"Protests, such as have been mentioned, were made by Egfrid, King of Northumberland, and his successor King Aldfrid, on the occasion of the first appeal to Rome; by King Edward the Confessor, by Henry the First, and succeeding sovereigns; and the same spirit which dictated these remonstrances declared itself publicly and legislatively in the Constitutions of Clarendon A.D. 1164; and again A.D. 1246; in the Statute of Carlisle, A.D. 1297; in the Articles of Clergy, in the Statutes of Provisors, A.D. 1350, A.D. 1363, and A.D. 1389; of Mortmain and of Praemunire, A.D. 1391-2; and finally, in the statutes of Henry VIII., from A.D. 1531 to A.D. 1543."

As I read the great divines of the Church of England, aversion to the word Protestant is quite novel. Archbishop Laud, in his conference with the Roman Catholic Fisher (quoted by Christopher Wordsworth, Theo. Americanus, p. 208), uses the word without hesitation:

"The Protestants did not get their name by protesting against the Church of Rome, but by protesting (and that when nothing else would serve) against her errors and superstitions. Do you remove them from the Church of Rome, and our Protestation is ended, and the separation too."

And again (vide supra, p. 236):

"I never said or thought that the Protestants made this rent. The cause of the schism is yours; for you thrust us from you, because we call for truth, and redress of abuses. A schism must needs be theirs whose the cause of it is. The woe is against him that gives the offense. Protestants did not depart, for departure is voluntary."

Nor has the word protest fallen into dishonor in our Church in these latest days. The Bishops in the Lambeth Conferences have again employed the word in the resolutions which they have passed and in their encyclical letters to the faithful in Christ Jesus.

Protestantism has its grave defects. What movement among men has there ever been, however noble, which has not grave defects? But the protest with which Protestantism began needs no apology. It came from the hearts of lovers of liberty when Romanism had united with political power to crush liberty and prosecute its advocates. Its protest was for positive truth as against error. Who can read words like those of the Diet of Spires and not thrill with admiration, especially if he remembers that the protestors added to their protest, as the Church of England did, an appeal to a general council? Their protest reads :

"Seeing that there is no sure doctrine but such as is conformable to the Word of God; that the Lord forbids the teaching of any other doctrine; that exact text of the Holy Scripture ought to be explained by other and clearer texts; and that this holy book is, in all things necessary for the Christian, easy of understanding, and calculated to scatter the darkness; we are resolved, by the grace of God, to maintain the pure and exclusive teaching of His only Word, such as it is contained in the Biblical books of the Old and New Testament, without adding anything thereto that may be contrary to it.

"This Word is the only truth; it is the sure rule of all doctrine and of all life, and can never fail or deceive us. He who builds on this foundation shall stand against all the powers of Hell, whilst all the human vanities that are set up against it shall fall before the face of God."

What is Protestantism? It has been described thus:

"Its negative principle is that any element of current ecclesiastical teaching or of popular belief that, on being traced back in history, runs out before the teaching of Christ's authoritative Apostles is reached, is no part of essential Christianity; its positive and formal principle is that nothing that is not taught in the Holy Scriptures, the authoritative rule of faith and practice in the Church, enters as an essential element into the Christian system. Its chief features and fundamental doctrines are the supremacy of the Bible, justification by faith, individual responsibility, and freedom (within the authority of the Bible) of conscience and worship."

What will the people of this land think if we renounce a name which has a meaning like that? What exclamations will come to us from our Articles and from our Ordinal, if we discard principles like these, standing as they do on the broad pages of the Articles and pressed home by the searching question to everyone who seeks to receive Commission from the Church as a religious teacher:

Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all doctrines required as necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined, out of the said Scriptures, to instruct the people committed to your charge; and to teach nothing, as necessary to eternal salvation, but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and proved by the Scripture?

To turn now to a very practical view of the question. We desire, of course, so to commend the claims of our Church to that part of the Christian world in which our lot is cast that there will be a "gathering of the people" to it. How many shall we draw to us by the proposal to drop the word "Protestant"? Our best way of judging the future is by the past. Is it not safe to say that, for one person who has been drawn to our Church because it was, as he thought, what is popularly understood by Catholic, there have been ten drawn because it was not that, but something distinctly different, viz., what is generally understood by "Protestant"; and while the one was probably a worn-out person, worn out by over-refinement, or misfortune, the ten probably belonged to the vigorous, fresh class who practically control the destiny of this land?

Now let me ask, which are the peoples to whom Protestantism in its general principles and drift has commended itself?

A well-known historian (Swinton) has written:

"Allowing for considerable exceptions, the nations of Teutonic stock embraced the new doctrines, while most of the Latin race adhered to the faith of Rome."

Is the work of our Church likely to be with peoples of the Teutonic or of the Latin stock—with English, Germans, Scandinavians, etc., or with Italians, French and Spaniards? What is the masterful influence in the world just now? Is it that of English, Germans, Scandinavians, etc., or of Italians, French and Spaniards? If we would as a Church exert a masterful influence, with whose mental movements shall we throw in our lot—with the English, Germans, Scandinavians, or with Italians, French and Spaniards?

If we were just establishing our Church in this country, then the discussion of a suitable name might be opportune. But our Church took up an independent life in this country long years ago. It then deliberately and explicitly took to itself the name "Protestant Episcopal." It has been conclusively shown in the course of the discussion which has been going on that this action was not taken by accident or inadvertence. The name "Protestant Episcopal" was put on the title page of our Prayer Book. It is part and parcel of the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer by the bishops, clergy and laity. It is inwrought into our Constitution and Canons.

The whole movement to change the name of the Church seems to me to be open to the charge of being pretentious, and to be away from the people, who like acts and not words; real success and not assertion that one has a right to it. It is a case where, as often, confidence in a cause has run on into what is a very different thing; namely, self-conceit. Always it is true that by self-forgetfulness and real effective work, not by self-consciousness and pretentious assertions, general confidence is won and lasting good results are achieved.

APPENDIX B.

TESTIMONY FROM THE MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, IN BEHALF OF THE REV. DAVID H. GREER, D.D., RECTOR OF ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S CHURCH, NEW YORK.

WE, whose names are underwritten, fully sensible how important it is that the sacred office of a Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony, on this solemn occasion, without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion, or for viciousness in life; and that we do not know or believe there is any impediment, on account of which he ought not to be Consecrated to that holy office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally, declare that we do, in our conscience, believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, such soundness in the faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners, and Godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the office of a Bishop to the honor of God, and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

The work done by the Sisters of the Holy Nativity is of especial value in this mission parish. Specially trained for such work, they instruct the young in the catechism, prepare persons for the reception of the Sacraments, visit among the congregation, assist in the operation of the parochial societies for women and girls, and do more non-sectarian work than is done anywhere else in the city. They have at the same time done a great deal for the Church in winning souls to our communion and in disarming Protestant prejudice.

Services and the Sunday-school have been maintained at the Mission of St. John Baptist, Richardville, throughout the year. Services have been held on forty-three Sundays, and one week-day. Five of the baptisms reported in the above report were from this Mission—4 adults, 1 infant, also 4 of the burials.

The children of the Sunday-school have contributed through the Lenten offerings to General Missions, $8.55.

In May, 1902, services were begun at West Somers, Westchester County, five miles from the lake, and have been continued with gratifying success. At first the services were held on every other Sunday, but in November arrangements were made with the Archdeaconry by which a Lay-reader (a student at the General Seminary) was engaged to assist in the work, since then there has been a weekly service. The services have been held part of the time in a vacant house, and part in a store room. We are looking forward to the building of a chapel, and have had plans drawn up which have received the approval of the Archdeacon, and we are in hopes to be able to begin the construction at an early date.

Ten children and three adults have been baptized, which are included in this report.

The Chapel of the Heavenly Rest (formerly the Church of the Epiphany), which had been leased by the Parish of the Heavenly Rest for many years, was sold last year to the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad. In consequence of this sale, it was decided to remove all the mission work, formerly conducted at the chapel, to the mother church, at Fifth Avenue and Forty-fifth Street, where for the future it will be carried on; and therefore there will only be one report henceforth, for the Parish of the Heavenly Rest.

Again the rector would gratefully acknowledge the services, freely rendered, of the Rev. Dr. Kettell, whose example of generous labors for the church, now for several years, is worthy of praise and emulation. Our East Side Chapel, in connection with the Frank Bottom Memorial, a settlement work, ministers to an increasing number of worthy poor people. The St. Andrew's Brotherhood is responsible for services and meetings held here, and a large Sunday-school, filling the rooms, trains up many children for the church.

Two large Chinese schools are operated in the parish house with gratifying results, both spiritual and educational.

The Rev. Alonzo C. Stewart has resigned as an assistant minister of this parish, and on May 1 became the rector of St. Alban's, Newark, N. J.

The Rev. W. Emory Henkell has received and accepted a call to the rectorship of St. Paul's Church, San Antonio, and will leave St. Andrew's to begin his work there in September. He has served this parish six years, and has served it most efficiently. The rector finding it impossible, owing to frequent removals from this neighborhood, and the carelessness of communicants about asking for letters of transfer, to keep an accurate list of communicants, would suggest some canonical legislation authorizing a rector of a parish to erase from his list any name of a person, of whom nothing is known, or whose whereabouts cannot be discovered. It seems absurd to carry names on the list years after they have left the vicinity, merely because letters of transfer have not been requested.

The large reduction in communicants means an unusually drastic purging of the lists. Our effort is to report always only communicants actually known and receiving communion during the year, but with our best efforts we can not keep this record exact. Every few years therefore, the list is purged. Probably there is a considerable number of communicants counting themselves as belonging here who are omitted in this count, having removed without notice of change of address, who could not be found in the visitation. The same is true of the count of families and baptized persons. The large increase in expenses and receipts is due to the completion of the memorial Parish House, through the gift of a member of the congregation.

This report covers only the eight months this mission has been under my charge.

From September 1, 1902 to January 1, 1903, services were held only on alternate Sundays, the other Sunday service being held at New Paltz. In the response to a numerous signed request, of the people of Rifton, the Archdeaconry arranged that I should hold services there every Sunday afternoon. On the 19th of October, 1902, a Sunday-school was organized and it continues prosperous.

It is hoped that a parish organization may soon be effected, and that everything will then move forward harmoniously. The whole outlook is encouraging.

The rectorship of this parish has been vacant for more than a score of years. It was revived during the past year, and the rector entered into residence on Advent Sunday last. The data here given represent the minimum rather than the maximum of statistics; they indicate the precise working condition of the parish. The parish is an interesting and in many ways a remarkable one, and has a larger importance than the statistics indicate. A cadet school with seventy-two pupils, a young ladies' school, a large summer hotel with four hundred guests during the season, together with an intelligent community, including many residents of New York City make it a post of great interest.

THE REV. J. BAPTISTE BLANCHET, D.D.

"I respectfully report that I was asked to take charge of the work at St. John's, Rockland County, last September, and that I have officiated regularly during the diocesan year:

"Families, about 100. Baptisms (inf. 6, ad. 1), 7. Marriages, 4. Burials, 4. Communicants: Present Number, 22. Public Services: Sundays, 104; Holy Days, 3. Holy Communion: Public, 16 times. Sunday-school: Officers and Scholars, 40, Public Catechising, every Sunday. Church Sitzings, 200.

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

" Respectfully reports to the Bishop of the Diocese, that during the past Conventional year, up to August 1st, he has been occupied in the discharge of his duties as Acting-Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and since that date as Sub-Dean. In the summer he preached twice in St. Stephen's Church, Ridgefield, Conn."

THE REV. CHARLES W. CAMP.

" During the year from September 30, 1902, to September 30, 1903, I have served in the Diocese of Long Island, as follows: Celebrations of the Holy Communion, 23; Sermons preached, 12; Other Services and parts of Services, 47; making a total of 82 Services in the year."

THE REV. JAS. STARR CLARK, D.D.,

CONSTITUTION

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; September 26, 1889 ; and September 14, 1902.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year, at such place as the Bishop shall appoint. It shall be held on the last Wednesday in September, unless the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee shall appoint another date. In case of the inability of the Bishop to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall appoint the time and place of holding the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver t

a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ;

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 1. In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee, by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

SEC. 2. In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new Parish.

SEC. 3. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

" 1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

" 2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

" 3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

" 4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 11. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 12. Reports of Special Committees.
- 13. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.
